FOUNDED six years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held nearly five hundred meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and fifty-five sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and twenty branch lending libraries.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. In addition to the fifteen ladies residing in the Home, the League now has Sisters working in very poor districts in North London, Birmingham, Liverpool, and Plymouth (2).

It opened, on June 4th, 1904, a Seaside Convalescent Home for poor children, which is worked in conjunction with, and as a branch of, the Church Sisters' Home. The ladies from that Home, working in some of the poorest London parishes, have brought under their notice many most deserving cases where a Seaside Home is of the greatest practical value.

It has established two of the finest schools for girls in the country. At one of these (Uplands' School, St. Leonards-on-Sea) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford, for the training of secondary women teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organisation.

COMMUNION & OFFERING.

By the Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, Rector of Lambeth.

Extracts from Personal and Press Notices.

The Rev. B. M. O. HANCOCK writes: "I feel the book is worthy of unqualified recommendation. It meets a real need, and no one who uses the book but will be enabled to enter devoutly and intelligently into the Great Service which in Christ unites all in heaven and earth before the Throne of God in adoration, thanksgiving, and self-surrender; the devotions and instructions are fervid, wise, and catholic."

BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS.—"I think it a most useful little book, and shall be glad to recommend it."

CANON BENHAM.—"It strikes me, at this moment, as about the best on Holy Communion which I have ever seen."

BISHOP OF GLOUCESTER.—"The interesting and important work of Dr. Walpole."

"The distinguishing feature of this little manual of Eucharistic instruction and worship is its constant insistence upon the structure of the Liturgy as determining the course of Eucharistic devotion. The prayers are simple and well-chosen, and the instructions for the most part clear and definite."—Church Times.

"The value of this excellent little book is very great. It is for busy people who want short and good prayers, and who welcome sound instruction if it can be briefly given. The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."—The Guardian.

"There are many manuals for the Holy Communion, some of which are so excellent that it would be difficult to better them, and this new and helpful little book is, in our opinion, among these latter."—Church Bells.

"Printed in clear type and systematically arranged, it will be found helpful by many in their preparation for Holy Communion."—St. Andrew.

"This is a simply written book, and the various divisions make it easy to understand."—Our Paper.

"This elegantly printed little book is by the Rector of Lambeth, who is also Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York."—Rock.

"The number of manuals for use at the service of Holy Communion is somewhat bewildering, but we do not think that this little book, by the Rector of Lambeth, can fail to find a welcome. . . . We commend it to the attention of the clergy."—Rochester Diocesan Chronicle.
