The Churchman Advertiser.

JANUARY, 1935.

To send back the Gospel to the Lands that gave it to us.

For 80 years this has been our aim in 13 countries comprising the Lands of the Bible.

Over 100 Mission Stations and objects helped last year.

BUT New Doors of Opportunity are open. They will shut if the servants of Jesus Christ do not enter. Many Stations are calling.

IF Funds fail, faithful native workers must be dismissed, an Evangelist here, or a Bible woman there.

Come over and help us.

could easily result in any country where spiritual life is not maintained. That danger exists in Canada. In the southern prairies drought for the sixth year destroyed all promise of crops.

Canada has been too hardly hit to support, adequately, the work of the Church and sorely needs the help of us, with our far greater privileges, in the Homeland.

Two Books on the Prayer Book

THE STORY OF THE ENGLISH PRAYER BOOK: Its Origin and Developments. With special chapters on the Scottish, Irish, American and Canadian Prayer books. By Canon DYSON HAGUE, D.D. Second Edition, Revised and Indexed, 1930. 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"It is much more interesting than most of the works on the Prayer Book, as it dwells more upon the motives and objects of the compilers than upon the material and contents of the Service Books that preceded the Prayer Book. It is written with pellucid clearness, and gives points for discussion which are a great help to an intelligent appreciation of the Prayer Book."—Norwich Diocesan Gazette.

THROUGH THE PRAYER BOOK. By Canon DYSON HAGUE, D.D. 3s. 6d. (Post 5d.)

"An exposition of its teaching and language, the origins and contents of its services. . . . This detailed and enthusiastic exposition of the Book of Common Prayer should do much to stimulate a more intelligent appreciation of the letter and spirit of its services."—Parents' Review.

The debt of the Churches to the Moravian Missions

All denominations of the Protestant Church owe much to the example of the Moravian Missionaries who for over two hundred years have gladly chosen the most difficult fields of labour in earth's darkest places. The work is much hampered by its inadequate income. Please help soon and generously by sending your contribution to
