NEWS

U.S.A. The American branch of EFAC held a conference centred on the parish of All Hallows, Wyncote (Philadelphia), Pennsylvania, from January 13 to 15. Canon Kevan Engel of the Diocese of Central Tanganyika, East Africa, the Rev. Dr. P. E. Hughes (President), Mrs. Elizabeth Iglehart, President of the Women's National Republican Club, the Rev. Peter C. Moore (Secretary), the Rev. Dr. J. I. Packer, Warden of Latimer House, Oxford, and the Rev. Geoffrey Rawlins comprised the team of speakers. In both numbers and enthusiasm the response was encouraging and it is clear that the parish centred conference provides an important method of advance for the work and witness of EFAC in America. It is a method which might well prove effective in other countries also.

CANADA. The Canadian-Evangelical Fellowship is taking wise steps to decentralize its work. Local "chapters" (or branches) of CAEF have now been formed in Toronto, Halifax, Quebec, Eastern Ontario and Manitoba. It is hoped to form one in Vancouver soon.

S. AFRICA. The Evangelical Fellowship of Anglican Churchmen of South Africa have a similar arrangement, with Regional Chairmen appointed for each of the four provinces of the Cape, Natal, Orange Free State, and Transvaal.
