THE ANCESTRY OF RANDALL THOMAS DAVIDSON, D.D.

(Archbishop of Canterbury).

A Chapter in Scottish Biography.

BY THE REV. ADAM PHILIP, M.A., LONGFORGAN.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

The accession to the See of Canterbury of a Scotsman, the second within a generation, is an event of some interest to his countrymen. Amongst his English friends and admirers, there must be those who would like to know the streams of life and thought that have helped to form and enrich the Primate.

This sketch is intended to meet such a wish. If it tells of men who have lived and acted in less prominent spheres of service, it also speaks of men who had an intelligent and generous outlook on life, of men who fought bravely for the truth of God, and stood up fearlessly for the rights of the Christian people.

THE PEOPLE'S PSALTER:

A plain Book for those who wish to use the Psalms in Church with intelligence and devotion.

By the Rev. G. W. S. WALPOLE, D.D.

(Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York.)

This book might well be described as the Church-goers' Psalter, for its object is to give ready help in the Church rather than in the study, to the ordinary worshipper, who oftentimes finds it difficult to give a meaning to the Psalms he is invited to sing, rather than to the student.

It has three features :—

1. A very brief introduction to each Psalm, setting forth its probable origin, its application in the Christian Church, and the use to which it has been or may be put.
2. Clearly-set-out divisions with interpretative headings, so that anyone may be able to see the progress of the thought of the Psalm.
3. Very short explanatory footnotes, dealing with any serious difficulties of the text.

There is, in addition, an introduction showing how the Psalms may be used. In this the author divides them into four great groups : (1) Messianic, (2) Social, (3) Missionary, (4) Devotional, and his endeavour is to show how the Psalms, whether as Intercessions, Thanksgivings, or Meditations, meet the needs and difficulties of the present day, and provide a ready means for lifting them out of their earthly surroundings into the spiritual atmosphere of God. The principle adopted in their interpretation is to ground it on the original historical foundation, where it may be known, and it is hoped that in this way any serious criticism of it as mystical or extravagant may be met. The outline, for such only it is, will need thought and attention, but a few minutes in the Home, or, still better, in the Church, before the service begins will be sufficient to get a clear grasp of its meaning. It has been bound and printed in such form as to be readily carried, and contains the Canticles, so that to those who know the Prayers no other book but one containing the Hymns would be necessary.

Foundations and Extracts from Reviews.

PENNY HOME BOOKS FOR THESE TIMES.

I. Home, Sweet Home; or, Courtship and Marriage.

(1st Volume of the Series.)

By the REV. CHARLES BULLOCK, B.D., Author of "The Queen's Resolve."

Price One Penny.

AN EFFORT FOR 1904.

It would be simply impossible to exaggerate in any statement the demoralizing and degrading influence of the pernicious publications now circulating everywhere, amongst all classes in our land. Books and magazines and papers, sometimes shamelessly bearing no printer's name, and absolutely atrocious in their contents, are hawked from door to door of our cottage homes, and the inmates are lured or enticed to order more. Sensational tales especially, of the lowest type, are often secretly undermining the sanctities of home life, and especially the sacredness and the blessedness of the marriage relationship.

To a great extent the Clergy find it very difficult to deal in the pulpit with this dark phase of immorality, even if those who are thus being poisoned were in the Church; and the result is that our sons and daughters, at the most perilous stage of their early years, to an increasing extent, become victims of the unprincipled story-mongers whose exciting tales and emotional pictures of a depraved, "fast" life, fascinate so many to their ruin.

We want to inaugurate at HOME WORDS Office for 1904 a new effort in this special direction. We want to reach, as far as we can, the home life of the nation; and we want the Clergy and all our Readers to help us. In the past, for forty or fifty years, we have laboured in this field. HOME WORDS Office, through the hearty interest and co-operation of the Clergy and Friends of pure literature, has practically been a PARISH-PRESS UNION—the Pastor's "second pulpit" in thousands of parishes and millions of homes. In one such parish we have just heard of a record of 193,000 copies of HOME WORDS alone circulated during the last fifteen years. In all instances, also, the efforts have been self-sustaining. There has been no need of Society aid. The people's pence have more than met the cost.

We cannot be too thankful for what has been done; but, with the really increasing need, we feel our thankfulness will best find its expression in continuous and extending effort.

We propose, therefore, if the Clergy, and "all who love Home," will help us (as they have always done), to issue a Series of marvellously cheap

"HOME BOOKS FOR THESE TIMES."

These books, some of them hitherto sold in bound form as half-crown volumes, will now be produced complete, and with many art illustrations and ornamental cover, for

1d. 6s. 3d. per 100.

We have selected this Book because its contents bear directly on the great and vital conviction—"There's no place like Home"; and we want to secure at once the immediate and strenuous support of all who feel with us.

To convey some idea of the character and object of the book, we append a Table of the Contents.

CONTENTS.

Benedicts and Bachelors—The Pros and Cons of Matrimony—"A Main Thing"—Finding a Wife—"Falling in Love."
 Looking Round—"Who can Find ?"—A Help-Meet—At Home—The Great Button Question—A Well-Cooked Dinner—Taking Counsel with Parents—The Choice of a Husband—The Dignity of "Womanhood."
 Love and Wisdom—Whatever You Do, be Open—"Round the Corner Waiting"—The Union of Heart and Life—"A Woman's Question"—The Ruined Husband.
 The Wrong Person—Marrying for Beauty alone—The Princess of Wales—The Poet Whittier—True Beauty—The Character of a Man—Diogenes—Men fit for Wives—Men with a Conscience—Garfield.
 An Old Wedding Wish—Mistakes Made—Cultivation and Self-Sacrifice—Head and Heart—Queen Victoria's Obedience—The House-Band—"Love," not "Mastery."
 Do not Look for Perfection—A Discipline of Character—"Our Wives"—The Perfection of Love—The Cultivation of Love—Two Models.
 The Happiest Place—The Wife's Kingdom—The True Magnet—Nets and Cages—The Call-Bird—Personal Appearance—Learn to Keep House—Crumbs and Lucifer Matches—The Button Question Again—Home "Surprises"—Fireside Harmony—The Wife's Song.
 The Newly-Married Pair—"Drops of Bitter"—The Irritation of Trifles—"Eyes Open and Eyes Half Shut"—"The Two Bears"—"Nagging"—Jeremy Taylor—Domestic Bliss—"One Light Together"—"Heaven More Near."

XV. ILLUSTRATIONS.

We again commend this effort to our Readers. We hope the success will at least equal that which attended the issue of the Million Numbers of THE NEWS, "HOLD FAST BY YOUR SUNDAYS," which so speedily gained a circulation of 300,000 copies. If only 50,000 of our Readers will start the effort by immediately ordering 12 copies each, and then introduce them to their friends, the 600,000 circulation thus secured would leave no doubt as to "the Million" we want to reach.

VITAL RELIGION;

OR,

The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

BY

Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Principal of Bede College, Durham.

THE aim of the Author in this work is to show that true religion is essentially a matter of personal experience, that it is the power created by an intelligent realization of an actual fellowship with a Living Person as clearly traceable in the daily events of life as in the various ministries of grace, that it pervades what is called the secular side of life as closely as the religious. The character of this Fellowship as indicated by the word Friendship is first examined and explained. The way by which it is attained is then pointed out, and there follows a consideration of its actual experience in the personal life of Thought, Work, and Suffering, as well as in the wider life of the Church.

The question is purposely treated in a broad, practical and popular way, in the hope that it may attract the attention of those who, whilst they seldom read books of a devotional character, are interested in any work that goes to prove that man's life, insignificant as it appears to be, is subjected to Divine Interference and Guidance.

Extracts from Reviews.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

"Dr. Walpole writes with a true moral passion. He pleads for a deeper, more intimate, more vital knowledge of God. Nothing could be more appropriate in a series calling itself 'The Church's Outlook for the Twentieth Century' than a volume like this, that sends us back to the fountain and source of all spiritual life."—New York Churchman.

"The perusal of that high-toned book has been to us a source of refined pleasure."—Weekly Leader.

"We must congratulate Dr. Walpole on having produced a very valuable work. It is of supreme importance that the personal element in religion should not be neglected, and that due attention be paid to the development of inner spiritual life. Dr. Walpole calls attention to real needs, and he gives excellent advice as to the means of satisfying them."—Pilot.

"No one who wishes to follow his argument will regret the half-crown it costs, so exceedingly helpful and uncommon is his treatment of the profoundest of all subjects—Living Union with our Living Lord."—Church Bells.

"This is a fresh and interesting presentation of a perennially important subject. . . . The book is characterized by a spirit of true devotion to our Lord, and is marked throughout by earnestness of thought and appeal."—Life of Faith.

"Contains many new and helpful thoughts."—Mission Field.

"It has the tone of sincere and earnest piety and the ring of honest conviction. In other words, we like the book and we like the personality which seems to lie in peace and confidence behind it."—Saint Andrew.

"There is a deal of force in the author's words about marriage, the shams of so-called worship, prayer, attitude, and daily duty."—Family Churchman.

"Many and weighty thoughts are expressed on the subject, which deserve careful consideration."—Liverpool Mercury.

TO VISIT THE HOLY LAND.

How a Life's Dream may be made a Reality.

A SPECIAL CRUISE HAS BEEN ORGANIZED IN CONNECTION WITH

THE WORLD'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

At JERUSALEM, APRIL 18, 19 and 20, 1904.

The Twin-Screw Atlantic Liner "FÜRST BISMARCK" (8,500 Tons, 14,000 Horse-power)

Has been chartered, and the party will be accompanied by the Venerable the Archdeacon of London, other well-known clergymen, Christian Workers, and their friends.

Members leave London, March 31st, 1904, and Marseilles, April 1st 1904. The Tour, which will occupy ONE MONTH, includes JERUSALEM, MOUNT OF OLIVES, BETHANY, RACHEL'S TOMB, and BETHLEHEM, in addition to many other interesting scenes in the HOLY LAND; also ATHENS, BEYROUT, ALEXANDRIA (for Cairo), and NAPLES.

Besides the obvious advantages of a Private Steamer, the unique features of this Cruise are the exceptional facilities afforded for visiting so many scenes of Biblical interest in so short a time, and for journeying in company with those whose sympathies and life-work are bound up in such sacred associations.

A large proportion of the steamer's accommodation being already engaged, the earliest possible application for berths is recommended.

Illustrated Booklet, with full particulars and plan of Steamers, can be obtained free at any office of
