COMMUNION AND OFFERING

BY

THE REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.

(Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York),
RECTOR OF LAMBETH.

---

THE object of this little book is to help Communicants to an intelligent appreciation of our Communion Office. Whilst it endeavours to supply help for Preparation and Thanksgiving by suitable prayers and hymns, its chief aim is to place those who use it in possession of the meaning of each part of the service. For this purpose the Service is divided into three parts, and each of these into clearly marked divisions. The use of it will, it is hoped, soon show what the main idea of the Service is, and how each part contributes to it. And it is believed that the more closely the structure is considered the more clearly will it appear that Offering and Communion are the leading characteristics; not Offering alone, or Communion alone, but both interwoven, the one with the other. The book consists of a kalendar to contain the names of persons and events that we desire to remember at Communion, a short Introduction setting out the meaning and purpose of our Lord's Institution, the Service itself briefly explained step by step, suggestions for Preparation and Thanksgiving, and the leading thoughts of the Collects, Epistles, and Gospels. Primarily designed for the author's own Communicants and Confirmation Candidates at Lambeth, it is written simply and plainly, and bears in mind the difficulties that beset hurried lives in their preparation for Holy Communion and the necessity of being intensely real where all is so real. That they may be helped to help themselves is its chief object.

The work is issued in a conveniently portable size, being divided into three parts, and arranged systematically under the subordinate subjects.
