A Note on Professor McGlothlin's Baptist Confessions of Faith.

In Prof. McGlothlin's Baptist Confessions of Faith, issued by the Baptist Historical Society, there is an account of the Confessions drawn up and published in 1851. It needs one slight correction and one interesting and valuable addition. He says that it is "the first General Baptist Confession to speak for more than one Church." The original is very rare, and even a facsimile reprint by John Taylor, of Northampton, is not at all common. This reprint is reproduced here. Only the scripture references are here given, while in the original the passages are quoted in full; and the signatures of the authors are omitted. The Confession thus abridged is as follows: "p. 94. It would be more accurate to call the 'original' unique; and to say that in the original some only of the important passages are quoted in full." On p. 97 McGlothlin is content to say "[Signatures of its sixty-one authors here]." These signatures are of special interest to English Baptists: and they are here exactly reproduced, from the reprint carefully compared with the 'original':—
