

Academic Theses on or Related to Baptist Studies

The following list has been compiled by Miss Rosemary Taylor from the list of theses in progress, 1967, issued by the Institute of Historical Research. (List No. 28, part II). We are indebted to the Secretary and Librarian of the Institute for permission to publish the list.

The development of the Nonconformist periodical press in the later 19th century. (J. H. Y. Briggs, Exeter Ph.D.)

Baptist political attitudes, with special reference to the late 19th century. (May James, Leeds M.A.)

The Baptists in Manchester, 1850-1900, with reference to Alexander McLaren. (D. Metcalf, Manchester M.A.)

Radical nonconformity in Lancashire, 1837-85. (J. H. Lea, Liverpool Ph.D.)

The religious thought and practice of the British and Foreign School Society, 1808-70. (B. Watchorn, Oxford B.Litt.)

Nonconformity in Liverpool, 1786-1914. (I. Sellers, Keele Ph.D.)

The Sunday school movement in England. (C. R. Riches, London M.Phil.)

The move for toleration and the abolition of the 39 Articles Test in the second half of the 18th century. (G. M. Ditchfield, Cambridge Ph.D.)

The life and thought of the Baptist churches in the E. Midlands. (F. M. W. Harrison, Nottingham M.A.)

Baptists of N.W. England, 1750-1850. (G. Weston, Sheffield Ph.D.)

Social aspects of nonconformity and Methodism in N. Carmarthenshire in the 18th century. (D. E. Williams, Wales M.A.)

Early west country nonconformity. (I. Gowers, Exeter M.A.)

The political influence of Protestant dissent in the reign of Queen Anne. (C. H. T. Parry, Wales Ph.D.)

Baptist attitudes to slavery in the 18th and 19th centuries. (G. A. Catherall, Keele Ph.D.)

The registrations of dissenting meeting-houses in Berkshire, 1687-1852). D. T. O'Rourke, Reading M.Phil.)

Post-Restoration Nonconformity and plotting, 1660-75. (W. G. Johnson, Manchester M.A.)

The Fifth Monarchy men: an analysis of their origins, activities, ideas and composition. (B. S. Capp, Oxford B.Litt.)

An investigation into the Sabbath controversy of the 17th century, with special emphasis on the position of the Radical Sabbatarians. (P. Read, Manchester M.A.)

Thomas Guy, 1645-1724. (P. T. Edden, Keele M.A.)

English Baptist periodicals, 1790-1865. (R. Taylor, London M.Phil.)