MR C. B. JEWSON

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mr Charles B. Jewson, a Vice-President of the Baptist Historical Society. Mr Jewson was held in high esteem in his native city of Norwich, as tradesman, philanthropist, local historian and sometime Lord Mayor; in St Mary's Baptist Church, of which he was Secretary for twenty-five years; in the Baptist Missionary Society, which he served as Treasurer for ten years; and not least in this Society. His love of the history of Norwich, above all of the part played in it by Baptists and other nonconformists, bore fruit in a number of publications, notably The Baptists in Norfolk and Jacobin City, not to mention the flow of articles he supplied to this journal from 1937 onwards. He was the lecturer at the Annual General Meeting of the Society in April 1969, and was considerably involved in the arrangements for the Society's Summer School at Keswick Hall in July 1978. His deep sympathy with his local scene, combined with the greatest diligence in research, will long be cherished as an ideal in Baptist historiography, and as a further tribute to him we hope soon to publish the paper he himself gave at the 1978 Summer School.
