 54 In this regard the work of the Revd Dr E.A. Payne CH, Secretary of the Baptist Union 1951-

67, should be noted; a consistent ecumenist, he became a President of the World Council of Churches in 1960. Under the Secretaryship of the Revd Dr M.E. Aubrey CH (1925-51), the British Council of Churches was formed in the Council Chamber of the Baptist Church House, Southampton Row, London, in September 1942. The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr William Temple, was present and appointed President.
