FROM THE EDITORS

The response to the premier issue of The Baptist Review of Theology (Fall 1991) has been gratifying. From our readers in Great Britain, Australia, the United States and Canada has come enthusiastic appreciation for our attempt to stimulate theological discussion among evangelical Baptists. We are especially pleased that as of this issue, articles appearing in The Baptist Review of Theology will be abstracted in Religious and Theological Abstracts, which appears in 1,000 libraries around the world.

This present issue incorporates a number of changes in format, some of which were suggested by readers. It is our hope that this new format will prove easier to read.

The appearance of articles and book reviews in French signals our desire to include French-speaking Baptists in theological dialogue. At a time in our nation's history when different languages are cause for division, it seems appropriate to bear witness in this small way to the spiritual unity we enjoy with French-speaking brothers and sisters who share our evangelical faith.

A NOS LECTEURS FRANCOPHONES

Nous voulons faire connaître à nos frères et sœurs francophones que la présence des articles français dans La Revue Baptiste de Théologie reflète notre désir d'inclure l'église baptiste évangélique française dans les discussions théologiques. Dans la crise politique actuelle que traverse notre pays, il est important à notre avis de souligner et de promouvoir, par la présence de ces articles français, l'unité spirituelle dont nous réjouissons en Christ.
