

Obituary.

CANON HOARE.

THIS venerable Evangelical leader, the honoured and beloved Vicar of Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, and Hon. Canon of Canterbury, died early on Saturday morning, after an illness extending over several weeks. As a leader of the Evangelical party (says the Times), Canon Hoare was held in general esteem. Amongst his works are "Our Protestant Church," "The Doctrine of the Lord's Supper," "Rome, Turkey, and Jerusalem," "Inspiration," "Sanctification," "Redemption." His mother was sister to Elizabeth Fry, and his father was connected with the banking firm of Messrs. Hoare. The late vicar married a daughter of Sir Benjamin Brodie. He graduated at Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1834, as Fifth Wrangler, was ordained two years later to the curacy of Pakefield, and was curate of Richmond, Surrey, from 1837 till 1846. He became perpetual Curate of St. John's, Holloway, London, in 1846, and twelve months afterwards he accepted the vicarage of Christ Church, Ramsgate, and in 1853 he was appointed Vicar of Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells. He was presented to an Honorary Canonry of Canterbury in 1868, and had been Rural Dean of South Malling since 1884.

CANON LORD FORESTER.

The Rev. Lord Forester, Canon Residentiary of York and Prebend of Langtoft, died recently at York after a long illness brought on by a chill, aged eighty-one. He was born in 1813, and succeeded his brother in 1886. He was educated at Westminster, and took his degree at Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1836, being ordained in the same year, and becoming Curate of Dunton, Bucks. In 1841 he was appointed Rector of Brosely, and was afterwards Vicar of Doveridge, Staffordshire, 1859-67, and Rector of Gedling 1867-87. He was Prebendary of Bullinghope in Hereford Cathedral from 1847 to 1874, and Rural Dean of Nottingham, division 2, from 1874 to 1887. From 1874 to 1891 he was Chancellor of York Cathedral and Prebend of Laughton. He possessed the privilege of wearing his hat in the Royal presence, which was conferred upon an ancestor of the family by a grant from Henry VIII. He is succeeded by his son, the Hon. Cecil Theodore Forester, who was born in 1842, and was educated at Harrow and Trinity College, Cambridge. At the annual conference of the members of the Yorkshire Evangelical Union Canon McCormick, who presided, said that in his own way his lordship was a man of remarkable character—one of the old school of English divines, which he hoped would never die out. As a consistent Churchman he loved with all his heart the Church with which he was associated—a man of deep and fervent piety. Of late he had not been able to attend the meetings of the Evangelical Union as regularly as he had done formerly, but they cherished his sweet memory, and would never forget the great hospitality that he extended to those who sympathized with him in the views he held, or his faithfulness to the cause of God and the Church.

MISS DANIELL.

We much regret the death of Miss Daniell, of Aldershot, whose name is known throughout the army as that of a devoted worker for the best interests of all ranks of the service. Her mother, the late Mrs. Daniell, was the originator, in 1862, of the "soldier's homes," which have been followed by many others, more or less upon the same lines. These two ladies, with many others associated with them in the seven institutes known as Miss Daniell's Homes, quietly devoted themselves for many years, of course entirely at their own charge, to the highest good of soldiers and their families. Miss Daniell was the only daughter of the late Captain Daniell.
