Obituary.

THE death of the Rev. Dr. Moulton, which took place early in February, removes yet another member of the New Testament Revision Committee. A fortnight earlier Dr. Samuel Newth, also a member of the same Committee, was removed by death. Both Drs. Moulton and Newth were noticeable representatives of the Free Churches at all the meetings of the Revision Committee.

Dr. Moulton is chiefly known to scholars by his elaborate edition of Winer's Grammar of New Testament Greek, which is a standard work. But his claims upon the gratitude of all Christian students are considerable, apart from this book.

Cambridge sustains a real loss by the death of Bishop Selwyn, who expired at Pau, in the South of France, on February 12. The deceased, the Right Rev. John Richardson Selwyn, was the son of the late Bishop of Lichfield, and was born in 1845. After curacies at St. Alrewas, Staffordshire, and St. George, Wolverhampton, he became Vicar of the latter parish in 1871. The following year he entered upon the Melanesia Mission, and in 1877 he succeeded Bishop Patteson, the first Bishop of Melanesia (murdered in 1871), but retired from the see in 1891, when he was appointed Hon. Chaplain to the Queen. In 1893 Dr. Selwyn succeeded the Hon. A. T. Lyttelton as Master of Selwyn College, Cambridge.

We have to announce with sincere regret the unexpected death of the Rev. Dr. Hole, Vicar of Christ Church, Worthing, after only a few days' illness. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, had a long and active ministerial career, both at home and in the colonies.
