EDITED BY THE REV. W. ROBERTSON NICOLL, M.A., LL.D.,
Editor of the Expositor, "Expositor's Bible," etc.

The FIRST VOLUME, of 880 pages, handsomely bound in buckram cloth, consists of

The GOSPELS of ST. MATTHEW, ST. MARK, and ST. LUKE, by the Rev. Professor A. B. BRUCE, D.D.; and The GOSPEL of ST. JOHN, by the Rev. Professor MARCUS DODS, D.D.

The price of each volume is 28s., but for those who subscribe in advance the price for Two VOLUMES is 30s.

"Dr. Bruce's commentary on the Synoptics is a notable piece of work. It is cheering and refreshing to find these books, with which our inner life is so closely bound up, treated frankly and honestly, as well as adequately for English readers, and withal in so believing and reverent a spirit that the treatment need not repel the most orthodox. . . . All is set forth with great frankness and admirable common-sense, and often in racy language, not without an occasional Scottish flavour."—Athenæum.

"The first thing that strikes one when he takes up the volume on the Gospels is the uncommon handsomeness of the book. It is a joy to handle it and look into its pages. It is the very book to lure a student into reading. The form is so superb, the paper so choice and so light, the margins so delightfully broad, the type so clear and so tasteful. The two scholars to whom this volume has been committed are the very men for the work. Each is a master of his subject, and each has gone into his task con amore. . . . A work worthy of the most cordial appreciation."—Critical Review.

THE MASS in the Greek and Roman Churches.

Dr. Wright gives in a compact form a full and clear account of the ceremony of the Mass in the Greek and Roman Churches. He shows what the different parts of the service are intended to symbolize. He contrasts it with the simple words of the New Testament, and shows how far both Churches have wandered from the true observance and meaning of the Lord's Supper.

T. & T. CLARK'S PUBLICATIONS.

A GREAT BIBLICAL ENCYCLOPÆDIA.

THE NEW

DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

Edited by J. HASTINGS, D.D.

With the assistance of J. A. SELBIE, M.A., and, chiefly in the Revision of the Proofs, of Professor S. R. DRIVER, D.D., Professor H. B. SWETE, D.D., and Professor A. B. DAVIDSON, D.D., LL.D.

GUARDIAN.—"We offer Dr. Hastings our sincere congratulations on the publication of the first instalment of this great work. . . . Promises to be, when completed, the best Biblical encyclopædia in English."

LITERATURE.—"Has been eagerly expected, and will be warmly welcomed. The names of those who have contributed to the work are the best possible guarantee of the high standard aimed at. . . . The result is a dictionary which very justly claims to be considered 'full, trustworthy, and accessible.'"

THE ATHENÆUM.—"We must congratulate the editor on the well-selected list of specialists to whose names he can refer as 'the best guarantee that the work may be relied on,' and on the exceedingly great care that has evidently been bestowed on the technicalities of editing, revising, and printing. . . . The mention, however, of these few names and articles must only be taken as specimens of the many others that deserve recording. Our endeavour has been to give to the reader as adequate an idea as possible of the quality of the work that is laid before him; and it is sufficient to add that the public ought to be grateful for the amount of interesting and important information that is thus placed within reach."

THE TIMES.—"If the other volumes come up to the standard of the first, this dictionary seems likely to take its place as the standard authority for Biblical students of the present generation."

THE CRITICAL REVIEW.—"It will be found to answer the anticipations which have been formed of it, and will soon be seen to be a timely, trusty, and most valuable guide. . . . Type, form, and binding are of the best, and the editorial work has been efficiently performed. . . . It represents the best type of scholarship—the scholarship that is liberal, critical, and, in the best sense, scientific, but that is also unpretentious, restrained, far removed from anything flighty, precipitate, or ostentatious. It follows the traditions of the old, sober, solid, massive English scholarship, infusing it with the modern spirit and applying to it the modern methods. . . . Publishers and editor are to be congratulated on what they have accomplished. They have laid us under great obligations. Their enterprise deserves the best return."

CHURCH BELLS.—"The publication of this volume is the most important event in the theological world this year. . . . The clergy must buy this book. One volume a year will not prove a heavy tax, and it will save them buying many another volume."

To be completed in Four Volumes, Imperial 8vo. (of nearly 900 pp. each).

Price per Volume, in cloth, 28s.; in half morocco, 34s.

Church Teaching on Foundation Truths.

BY REV. H. W. DEARDEN, M.A.

"This work is evidently the result of real culture, patient research, and true piety. It merits a large measure of unaffected praise. "A really comprehensive summary comment on the whole circle of Christian truth. We hope that the author will give us many books of a similar type."—The News.

"Cannot fail to be helpful to many."—Church Bells.

"Mr. Dearden's book has many claims on the careful attention and study of all English Churchmen, setting forth, as it does, all the great foundation truths of Christianity, not so much in the negative as on the positive aspect."—National Church.

"It is undoubtedly a work which will amply repay attentive perusal, for eminently practical aids to a better religious understanding are not often met with."—Public Opinion.

"We have pleasure in giving a ready welcome to this excellent little work."—Literary World.

"We have carefully examined the teaching on such points as the Church and the Sacraments, and rejoice to see how wisely the true Scriptural doctrine of the Church is brought out. We cordially recommend the volume."—Church Sunday School Magazine.

"It is difficult to over-estimate the value of such a book as this. The writing is admirably terse and lucid."—Churchwoman.

CHURCH OF IRELAND SUSTENTATION FUND.

(LONDON COMMITTEE IN AID.)

Patron—THE DEAN OF NORWICH.

Chairman of Committee—THE LORD CLAUD J. HAMILTON.

This Fund was founded at Disestablishment as a channel for sympathy of friends in England with their brethren of the Church of Ireland.

It is now devoted entirely to enabling the ministry of the Church to be maintained in the South and West of Ireland, in parishes where the Protestants are few and isolated, and UNABLE TO MAINTAIN THEIR CHURCH UNAIDED.

Last year EIGHTY-NINE parishes received grants from this Fund, administered through their own diocesan schemes.

The NEED of this help is unabated, and the Committee earnestly appeal to English Churchmen to give this testimony of fellowship with their isolated brethren bravely holding the outposts. Their help in supplementing the efforts of the Church herself is much appreciated.

Donations may be sent to Messrs. COUTTS and CO., Strand, W.C.; to the Treasurer, Sir C. R. LIGHTON, Bart., 91 Billiter Buildings, Billiter Street, E.C.; or to the Hon. Secretaries, the Misses NUGENT, 29 Eaton Terrace, London, S.W.

AN ATTRACTIVE OFFER.

The real, practical usefulness of THE FAMILY CHURCHMAN to every clergyman who is also a preacher lies in its two reports every week of sermons preached in St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, and elsewhere in London and the country. These reports are of sermons delivered the Sunday previously to publication, and thus the very latest utterances of the most eminent clergy of the day are presented the same week.

SPECIAL TERMS TO THE CLERGY.

With the view of extending the influence of "The Family Churchman," the proprietors are prepared to offer special terms to clergymen desirous of becoming readers. Also, to every purchaser of 30 copies they will present

A HANDSOME HALF-GUINEA BIBLE,

Containing references, coloured maps, chronologies, a Bible-reader's manual, index, concordance, gazetteer, etc., bound in limp covers, with clear type, of convenient size, and admirably suited to the needs of students and teachers.

THIS OFFER WILL BE LIMITED TO A CERTAIN PERIOD.

BEFORE SIXTY YEARS AGO.

The special claims of the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING FEMALE EDUCATION IN THE EAST to recognition are:

- (1) That it was the only Society for both Zenana work and School work existing in the Empire at the time of the Queen's Accession.
- (2) That it was then already carrying on Zenana work, Harem work, and School work, in China, the Straits, Egypt, and India.
- (3) That it was the pioneer of all subsequent efforts in Zenana and Harem work, for which it prepared the way, by encountering and, to a certain extent overcoming, the greatest initial difficulties.
- (4) That it still occupies a wider sphere than any kindred Society in existence.
- (5) That by the help of God it has continued steadfast unto this day "in the Apostles' doctrine," and in the work of sending the Gospel to the heathen women and girls of the East.

The Committee urge these claims, and appeal for help to their Commemoration Fund, to enable them to strengthen and extend the work of the Society.

Numbers live in underground airless places, or in sheds exposed to summer sun and winter storms. No furniture but boards, rags, petroleum tins, and sacks for bedding. THE LONDON CITY MISSION EMPLOYS 470 MISSIONARIES, AND IS IN URGENT NEED OF FUNDS.

It is one of the oldest of the Home Missionary Societies, and has ever held fast to its Evangelical principles.

More than half a million men yearly visited.

If friends are unable to contribute the whole sum necessary to maintain a Missionary, they may be able to offer £10, £5, or smaller sums. These subscriptions will be grouped for particular districts, and will thus remove the pressing anxiety of the Committee. Gifts will be gratefully acknowledged by the
