Dr. HANDLEY C. G. MOULE, Principal of Ridley Hall, Cambridge, says, "As a short explanatory commentary on the whole Scriptures, I know nothing so good as the 'Annotated Paragraph Bible' of the Religious Tract Society. It is as careful and able a piece of work as it is unpretentious; I find it of constant use as a book to keep at hand during my private devotional reading of the Word of God."

The Rev. F. B. MEYER, of Christ Church, Westminster Bridge Road, says: "It would be impossible for me to express how much I owe to the 'Annotated Paragraph Bible.' It was a happy day when I first came on this mine of wealth, and I have never found anything better of the kind. It is admirable for daily reading. The references are copious, and selected with much care. The summaries of the arguments of the Epistles are marvels of lucidity, whilst the notes compress bookfuls of learning into a few lines. The present edition seems greatly improved, and embodies the results of comparison between the Authorised Version and Revised Version. This makes it still more valuable. I have seen and handled and bought Bibles of all sorts, but for the ordinary reader I do not know of one more handy or helpful than this; nor is this to be wondered at when we consider the devout and learned men by whom this storehouse of scriptural information was compiled. I unhesitatingly commend it."

The CHRISTIAN says: "This noble volume is suitable for the fullest and freest use in the Christian home, and may be safely selected by such as desire to present a beautifully printed, self-interpreting Bible to their friends."

The BRITISH WEEKLY says: "It is still unrivalled as a Bible in one volume containing sufficient explanatory notes."

The SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRONICLE says: "We are often asked by Sunday-School teachers to recommend a short commentary on the whole Bible, and, take it all in all, we know of none quite equal to this."

BEFORE SIXTY YEARS AGO.

The special claims of the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING FEMALE EDUCATION
IN THE EAST to recognition are:

- (1) That it was the only Society for both Zenana work and School work existing in the Empire at the time of the Queen's Accession.
- (2) That it was then already carrying on Zenana work, Harem work, and School work, in China, the Straits, Egypt, and India.
- (3) That it was the pioneer of all subsequent efforts in Zenana and Harem work, for which it prepared the way, by encountering and, to a certain extent overcoming, the greatest initial difficulties.
- (4) That it still occupies a wider sphere than any kindred Society in existence.
- (5) That by the help of God it has continued steadfast unto this day "in the Apostles' doctrine," and in the work of sending the Gospel to the heathen women and girls of the East.

The Committee urge these claims, and appeal for help to their Commemoration Fund, to enable them to strengthen and extend the work of the Society.
