VITAL RELIGION:

Or, The Personal Knowledge of Christ. By Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,
Principal of Bede College, Durham.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily recommend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in an actual experience.'"—Guardian.

This book is written with Miss Alcock's well-known thoroughness and historical accuracy, and deals with the Reformation in Geneva at the time of Calvin's greatest power. The incidents are many and exciting, and there is much fine character sketching. The book is well calculated to impress upon the minds of readers an abiding picture of the scope and influence of the Reformation movement in Switzerland and Central Europe.

ANOTHER MAN'S MONEY.

By DAVID LYALL. Author of "The Gold that Perisheth," "The Land o' the Leal," etc. With a Frontispiece by Alfred Pearse. Large crown 8vo., cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

This Book contains two studies of every-day life: in one, the chief character comes for a time into the inheritance of a man supposed to be dead, and passes through the severe discipline that this position of affairs involves; in the other, a man whose religious life is merely external, and who, through the ruin he thus brought upon himself, is saved as by fire, is sketched with great power.

THE MORAVIAN MISSIONS.

(ESTABLISHED 1732.)

Oldest Protestant Missions to the Heathen—First to the Lepers.

About one in sixty members is a Missionary. There are gathered under their care from darkest heathenism nearly 100,000—i.e., more than three times as many as the Parent Church.

To help those devoted people whom God so blesses, and who, in the preponderating proportion of their Missionaries, are so largely doing the work of other Churches,

THE LONDON ASSOCIATION IN AID

Was formed in 1817. The following are some of many pressing needs for which Earnest Prayer and Support are Sought.

FOR GENERAL FUND—largely increased annual help of at least £4,000 if existing Missions are to be maintained and Deficiency averted.

FOR THE LEPER HOME, Jerusalem, where Inmates have doubled in number, funds are still urgently wanted to defray the cost of the New Water Reservoir, etc.

FOR LABRADOR, hitherto self-supporting, but crippled for a time in its resources, £2,000 annually is required for a few years, until the Mission can be re-established. For this need, and to avert loss to the General Fund, an ADDITIONAL Fund is being raised.

CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE THANKFULLY RECEIVED

and information given by the REV. W. WETTON COX, at the Offices of the LONDON ASSOCIATION, 7, New Court, Lincoln's Inn, LONDON, W.C., who will also gladly arrange for Meetings, Sermons, Lectures, etc.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The Bishop of Durham writes: "Long have I known and honoured the Evangelical Alliance. It is a grand means for the promotion of the spiritual sympathy and co-operation of Christians of many lands, and a powerful agency for the practical aid of the weak and oppressed, which God has largely used."

The Rev. Preb. Webb-Peploe writes: "Very heartily do I commend the Evangelical Alliance to the Christian public. It binds together the Christians of different denominations, and where brethren have been suffering for Christ's sake it has done a remarkable work. I earnestly commend the Alliance to the attention of Christians, in the hope that they will support it liberally with their gifts and prayers."

600 pages, price 12s., cloth.

The Philosophy of the Christian Religion. By A. M. FAIRBAIRN, D.D., LL.D., Principal of Mansfield College, Oxford.

"It is no exaggeration to describe this as a great work, and the greatest that Principal Fairbairn has yet given to the world. He has written many books, all good, but differing in value; and hitherto his 'Christ in Modern Theology,' with its masterly historical surveys and bold yet massive attempt at theological reconstruction, has been regarded as his masterpiece. But, unless we are mistaken, the volume before us is a still more remarkable achievement, which will establish on an even broader basis than before the author's reputation as a profound theological scholar and thinker, who also possesses in a brilliant degree a gift that is by no means universal among theologians—the gift of expounding his ideas."—Glasgow Herald.

The Integrity of Scripture: Plain Reasons for Rejecting the Critical Hypothesis.

By the Rev. JOHN SMITH, M.A., D.D. Edinburg.

"Vigorous common-sense marks every page of Dr. Smith's work. The book is most useful either for giving or lending to persons perplexed by current controversies about the Bible, and it would be a good thing if the clergy would take a leaf from it, and make use of its contents as materials for their addresses to their people. Nothing can be fairer than Dr. Smith's way of dealing with the questions raised. He puts the case without passion and without exaggeration in a straightforward style that renders the subject intelligible to plain folk."—Church Family Newspaper.
