

EAST LONDON FUND FOR THE JEWS.

Patron:

The Right Hon. and Right Rev. THE LORD BISHOP OF LONDON.

Organizing Secretary: REV. A. M. CAZALET, M.A.

Office: 71, Hamilton House, Bishopsgate, E.C.

Bankers: LONDON AND COUNTY BANK.

OBJECT.—Evangelization of the Jews in East and North London, of whom there are more than in the whole of the rest of the United Kingdom, and considerably more than in the whole of Palestine.

METHOD.—Grants to incumbents for the supply of clerical or lay agents to work amongst their Jewish parishioners.

IMMEDIATE NEEDS.—Income for 1901 was under £1,800, nearly £300 less than the previous year. At least an additional £1,000 per annum is urgently needed to make much-needed grants to East End Parishes.

Will not our own CHRISTMAS joy be doubled if we share it with God's ancient people, ISRAEL, to whom, under God, we Gentiles owe the glad tidings of the birth of the Messiah?

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The Bishop of Durham writes: "Long have I known and honoured the Evangelical Alliance. It is a grand means for the promotion of the spiritual sympathy and co-operation of Christians of many lands, and a powerful agency for the practical aid of the weak and oppressed, which God has largely used."

The Rev. Preb. Webb-Peploe writes: "Very heartily do I commend the Evangelical Alliance to the Christian public. It binds together the Christians of different denominations, and where brethren have been suffering for Christ's sake it has done a remarkable work. I earnestly commend the Alliance to the attention of Christians, in the hope that they will support it liberally with their gifts and prayers."

Small 4to., 128 pp., cloth extra, bevelled boards, gilt edges.

By the Rev. J. BATCHELOR, C.M.S. Missionary in Japan, Author of "Ainu Folklore," etc., etc.

DESCRIPTION.

The book is written for young people. Its purpose is to give information about the work of the Church Missionary Society among the Japanese as well as the Ainu in the northern part of the Empire of Japan. The writer has been engaged in the Mission almost from its commencement, and the incidents recorded are those which have come under his own eye. Some of the things may appear to be almost incredible, yet they are perfectly true. "Yezo! Where's that?" "What kind of a land is it?" "What animals are found there?" "What sort of people live there?" "Are they short and stumpy like the African dwarfs, or tall and straight like the Sikhs of India?" All these questions and many others the writer answers in a telling way, and the stories introduced here and there are very interesting.

CYRIL GREY.—FOR CROWN AND COVENANT. By CECIL GREY. With Three Illustrations by ALFRED PEARSE. Large Crown 8vo., cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

EGLANTON THORNE.—THE BLESSEDNESS OF IRENE FARQUHAR. By EGLANTON THORNE. With Frontispiece. Crown 8vo., cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

The story of a young girl in the possession of every luxury, who, by a sudden and severe accident, is laid aside from active life, and whose character, through the discipline which this involves, is greatly strengthened and purified. Some of the incidents turn upon the South African War.

A book for adults, showing how much good in a country village a woman may do who devotes a little time and thought and prayer to those around her, with the single motive of trying to be helpful to them in the way of directing their lives and themselves to the service of Christ.

LITTLE MAID MARIGOLD. By E. H. STOOKE. With a Frontispiece by ALFRED PEARSE. Crown 8vo., cloth gilt, 2s.

A brightly-written story of child-life, much above the run of such tales. The children sketched are attractive in themselves, and the part they play, especially in influencing the lives of their elders, is very well told.

ANEAL'S MOTTO. By B. E. SLADE. With Frontispiece. Crown 8vo., cloth gilt, 1s. 6d.

The motto is "Life is made up of little things," and the aim of the writer is to show the importance of faithfulness in the little matters of life. The book is somewhat sensational in its incidents, but the teaching is entirely on the side of what is right and true.

By BASIL WILBERFORCE, D.D.,

Archdeacon of Westminster, Chaplain to the Speaker, Select Preacher before the University of Oxford.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

The preacher does not assume to provide a clear solution to the weary problems which surround human existence; he merely records the experience of a heart "feeling after Him," with an unshakeable conviction that the responsible Creative Spirit is, by virtue of His omnipotence, under obligation to effect, here or elsewhere, the moral perfection of all that He has caused, by thought-generation, to be.

THE AMEN OF THE UNLEARNED

A LAY COMMENTARY.

By M. C. E.

These Essays are the plain readings of Bible truths, meant for the plain man, and lay no claim either to the standpoint of the higher criticism or to that of professional theologian. They do not attempt to approach the Old or the New Testament in the spirit of scientific research, of a learned divinity, or of a minute scholarship. The path the author follows is that of sympathy and insight. . . . I believe there is a very important place in scriptural literature for what may be called the exegesis of sympathy. The Author of these Essays makes no claim to have sounded all the depths of scholarly criticism, to have elucidated the secret meaning of a doubtful text, or, again, to have considered before writing all that the Fathers or the great divines throughout the ages have said on the points dealt with. The endeavour is something very different. It is with the aid of the English text, and of a clear and sympathetic mind working independently and untrammelled on that text, to bring the true and inner meaning of our Lord's teaching home to the reader's heart and mind. . . . These Essays are essentially lay commentaries—the free but reverent attempt to draw forth and know the inner meanings of the Bible. In them a lay mind speaks to lay minds. No claim is made that this is the highest and best form of appeal, for no such claim could be justified, but it is claimed that there is a place for work of this kind.

VITAL RELIGION: Or, the Personal Knowledge of Christ.

By the Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

PRINCIPAL OF BEDE COLLEGE, DURHAM.

"A good example of the religious teaching which is practical without loss of spirituality. Well written and illustrated from many sides of familiar contemporary life."—St. James's Gazette.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily recommend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in an actual experience.'"—Guardian.

Our Attitude towards English Catholics and the Papal Church.

By ARTHUR GALTON, B.A.,

SOMETIME PRIEST IN THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

"The whole subject is treated historically, without any political or sectarian bias."—Family Churchman.

"A thoughtful study of the relations between England and the Papacy."—Scotsman.

"Mr. Galton has given us a very useful and a very readable volume."—The Churchman.

"The book deserves to be widely read; its statements are based on good authority, its judgments are sound, and it is emphatically a book for the time."—Dundee Advertiser.

Theology, Old and New.

By the Rev. W. F. COBB, D.D.,

RECTOR OF ST. ETHELBERGA'S, BISHOPSGATE.

"Dr. Cobb approaches his subject in a liberal spirit, and his grasp of many fundamentals is strong and his tone reverent."—The Churchman.

"The work altogether is a most suggestive and capable contribution to that great work of theological reconstruction which religious thinkers of every Church and party realize as the immediate work before them."—Christian World.

"The treatise is fluently written, and is calculated to serve the object for which it is intended."—Sheffield Daily Independent.

KING DAVID: A Tragedy. By R. C. FILLINGHAM, Vicar of Hexton, Author of "The Gospel in the Fields," "Christ in London."

The drama deals with the episodes of David's murder of Uriah and his subsequent punishment. It is written in strict classical style. While portraying David's conflict with himself and his emotion at the death of his child, the play deals incidentally with the deepest problems of human life, such as the efficacy of prayer, the origin of evil, the nature of God, and other momentous questions which are much debated in the present day.

To help those devoted people whom God so blesses, and who, in the preponderating proportion of their Missionaries, are so largely doing the work of other Churches,

THE LONDON ASSOCIATION IN AID

Was formed in 1817. The following are some of many pressing needs for which Honest Prayer and Support are Sought.

FOR GENERAL FUND—largely increased annual help of at least £4,000 if existing Missions are to be maintained and Deficiency averted.

FOR THE LEPER HOME, Jerusalem, where Inmates have doubled in number, funds are still urgently wanted to defray the cost of the New Water Reservoir, etc.

FOR LABRADOR, hitherto self-supporting, but crippled for a time in its resources, £2,000 annually is required for a few years, until the Mission can be re-established. For this need, and to avert loss to the General Fund, an ADDITIONAL Fund is being raised.

CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE THANKFULLY RECEIVED

and information given by the REV. W. WETTON COX, at the Offices of the LONDON ASSOCIATION, 7, New Court, Lincoln's Inn, LONDON, W.C., who will also gladly arrange for Meetings, Sermons, Lectures, etc.
