London Society for Promoting Christianity amongst the Jews (Founded 1809).

YOUR HELP IS EARNESTLY CALLED FOR.

THE present state of the Society's income is giving real cause for much anxiety. So far sufficient has not been received even to lead to the hope, humanly speaking, that the income of the whole year will cover the expenditure to which the Society is already committed on account of existing work.

During the last two years it has entered clearly opened doors, its responsibilities are consequently increased, and legacies have this year been considerably under the average of past years.

Will you come to the Society's assistance and help in this its real time of need? The missionary work is full of encouragement, the school work is most cheering, and the Committee are confident that they are doing GOD's work, and therefore have no hesitation in calling to His servants everywhere to help them to carry on the work He has put into our hands to do for Him.

The London Society is THE OLDEST AND DISTINCTLY CHURCH SOCIETY WORKING FOR JEWS at home and abroad, and established in 1824 the FIRST MEDICAL MISSION IN THE WORLD.

211 Missionaries. Fifty-Two Mission Stations.

PAROCHIAL GRANTS made. THE SOCIETY HAS MISSION CHAPELS, MISSION ROOMS and SCHOOLS, INDUSTRIAL and other HOMES, at home and abroad. HOSPITALS at Jerusalem and Safed (over 29,000 out-patients annually). DISPENSARIES in important centres. COLPORTAGE WORK extensively carried on.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The Bishop of Durham writes: "Long have I known and honoured the Evangelical Alliance. It is a grand means for the promotion of the spiritual sympathy and co-operation of Christians of many lands, and a powerful agency for the practical aid of the weak and oppressed, which God has largely used."

The Rev. Preb. Webb-Peploe writes: "Very heartily do I commend the Evangelical Alliance to the Christian public. It binds together the Christians of different denominations, and where brethren have been suffering for Christ's sake it has done a remarkable work. I earnestly commend the Alliance to the attention of Christians, in the hope that they will support it liberally with their gifts and prayers."

THE POSITION OF THE LAITY IN THE CHURCH.

By ALFRED BARRY, D.D., D.C.L.,

Canon of Windsor and Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of London ; formerly Bishop of Sydney and Primate of Australia.

---

The object of this work is to examine briefly the true position of the Laity in the Church of Christ, in regard both to rights and responsibilities. This examination renders it necessary to consider that position ideally, as a part of the Apostolic Constitution of the Church of the New Testament and of primitive times, and also to trace in slight outline the historical developments of that position in times past and present, especially in relation to our own branch of the Catholic Church. The task is undertaken under the strong conviction that, with a view both to Church Reform and to Church progress, it is urgently necessary for us to secure for our Church some organization of self-government in which clergy and laity shall be adequately represented and rightly co-ordinated under Episcopal direction.

The following list of contents of various chapters will best indicate the idea and the plan of the work.

CONTENTS.

Preface.

The Apostolic Ideal of the Church.

The Growth of Hierarchical Power in the Early and Middle Ages.

The Reaction against the Hierarchical Power and Re-assertion of the rights of the whole Body of the Church.
