

True Religion. By the Very Rev. F. W. FARRAR. London: Brown, Langham and Co.

These sermons exhibit all the well-known traits of the great preacher. There is the same glow of language, perfectly boundless wealth of illustration, impassioned appeals after righteousness, and scathing denunciation of formalism that we have known and loved before. Criticism is silent before so much honesty and sincerity of purpose. The admirers of the gifted Dean—and are they not found all the world over?—will rejoice in this collection of trumpet-like calls to a single-minded and moral life.

NOTES.

WE understand that Messrs. Eyre and Spottiswoode, His Majesty's printers, will shortly transfer their Bible and Prayer-Book Department to 33, Paternoster Row and 13, Paternoster Square. We are also informed that arrangements have been made for the transfer of Messrs. Thomas Nelson and Son's Bible Department to the same premises, and that both businesses will thereafter be conducted under the name of Eyre and Spottiswoode (Bible House), Limited. The new premises, which will probably be opened in April, will contain a reading-room, a show-room, and a collecting department, with ample warehouse and office accommodation.

ERRATA IN "LIGHT FROM THE ALMANACK," IN THE "CHURCHMAN"
FOR DECEMBER, 1892.

- Page 121, line 27, for "went" (ἀπῆλθε) read "came" (ἦλθεν).
 " " lines 30 and 31, delete "The Revisers . . . little difference."
 " 122, line 1, for "south-west" read "south-east."

