KEY TO THE HEBREW PS AL T ER. By the Rev. GEORGE AUGUSTUS ALO CK, Ethical Moderator and Graduate in Honours of Trinity College, Dublin.

A Lexicon and Concordance combined, wherein are all the Words and Particles which occur in the Book of Psalms, the verses in which to find them, together with their chief Inflections, Roots, etc.

“The amount of care and research which Mr. Alcock must have devoted to his task is little less than marvellous.”—Irish Times.

“The work deserves the highest commendation.”—English Churchman.

In foolscap 8vo., paper boards, price 8s. 6d.

ST. PAUL. Addresses delivered in London. By the Rev. ROWLAND W. CORBET, late Rector of Stoke-on-Tern, Author of “Letters from a Mystic of the Present Day.”

“Mr. Corbet has evidently been a careful student of St. Paul, and of the expounders of his doctrine, the bearing of which in its personal, social and general, relations he discusses in a manner which by its earnestness cannot fail to command respect.”—Glasgow Herald.

“A simple and suggestive exposition, from the point of view of Anglican Divinity, of the spiritual teaching in the Epistles commonly attributed to St. Paul.”—Scotsman.

In crown 8vo., cloth, gilt lettered, price 8s. 6d.

“Mr. Williams treats the various topics embraced in this volume most skilfully. The whole volume deserves attention, and we hope it will have an extensive circulation.”—Llan.

In crown 8vo., gilt lettered, price 1s. 6d. net.

“A wise and timely contribution to the subject of pastoral training. Admirable in tone and spirit, thoroughly sane, and profoundly evangelical. The truth is put with great clearness and directness.”—Weekly Leader.

The Religious Sense in its Scientific Aspect.

By GREVILLE MACDONALD, M.D.

1. The Religion of Service. 2. The Religion of Renunciation.
3. The Religion of Freedom.

"This, the embodiment of three lectures given to the students at King's College, London, last year, is a most interesting book. The religious sense is defined by the author as being 'that acknowledgment of the law which compels all creatures possessing the sense to work or live for objects or attainments, be they immediate or prospective, in which the individual has no personal concern, save perhaps in exalted specimens of the species Man' (p. 35). He then proceeds to show where this religious sense is to be found, and argues that the earliest indications of a germinal religion are to be seen revealed, e.g., in the life of a sponge, in the story of a daisy, or in that of the wild guelder-rose. But while there is much reference to science, yet it is freely acknowledged that 'science alone will not serve,' and a most beautiful passage to that effect will be found on p. 67. The whole subject is treated in a most original way, both in expression and illustration, and the author is not afraid of frequent digressions, which somehow or other invariably lead back to the main subject. Thoughtful readers will much enjoy the various definitions scattered throughout the book, such as those of 'life' (p. 24), 'soul' (pp. 75, 76), 'beauty' (p. 94), and 'environment' (p. 179 seq). This will probably be looked upon as a great book, not so much for what it says as what it suggests."—Church Family Newspaper.

THE GOAL OF THE UNIVERSE or, The Travail of the World's Saviour.

By S. W. KOELLE, Ph.D.,

Author of "Mohammed and Mohammedanism Critically Considered."

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

THE book containing the record of God's revelations begins with the creation of man, but immediately follows the statement that, by the creature's own failure in a testing time, sin has entered into the world, and brought with it a long train of evils, including death. These opening portions of the Bible furnish the necessary light for the right apprehension of all later developments in the history of the human race. What follows in the Sacred Word is a record of the various measures adopted by the Creator for the recovery of His creatures and the restitution of His world to its original 'goodness.' The religion of the Bible is a religion of restoration; its central figure is a 'Saviour'; it is the Creator become the Saviour.

VITAL RELIGION;

Or,

The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

By

Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Principal of Bede College, Durham.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

"Dr. Walpole writes with a true moral passion. He pleads for a deeper, more intimate, more vital knowledge of God. Nothing could be more appropriate in a series calling itself 'The Church's Outlook for the Twentieth Century' than a volume like this, that sends us back to the fountain and source of all spiritual life."—New York Churchman.

"The perusal of that high-toned book has been to us a source of refined pleasure."—Weekly Leader.

"We must congratulate Dr. Walpole on having produced a very valuable work. It is of supreme importance that the personal element in religion should not be neglected, and that due attention be paid to the development of inner spiritual life. Dr. Walpole calls attention to real needs, and he gives excellent advice as to the means of satisfying them."—Pilot.

"No one who wishes to follow his argument will regret the half-crown it costs, so exceedingly helpful and uncommon is his treatment of the profoundest of all subjects—Living union with our Living Lord."—Church Bells.

"This is a fresh and interesting presentation of a perennially important subject. . . . The book is characterized by a spirit of true devotion to our Lord, and is marked throughout by earnestness of thought and appeal."—Life of Faith.

"Contains many new and helpful thoughts."—Mission Field.

"It has the tone of sincere and earnest piety and the ring of honest conviction. In other words, we like the book and we like the personality which seems to lie in peace and confidence behind it."—Saint Andrew.

"There is a deal of force in the author's words about marriage, the shams of so-called worship, prayer, attitude, and daily duty."—Family Churchman.

"Many and weighty thoughts are expressed on the subject, which deserve careful consideration."—Liverpool Mercury.

ROYAL VISIT TO IRELAND.

Some Letters received by the Author.

The Bishop of Cork writes:—"I am sure that the extensive circulation of this beautiful book, 'Crowned to Serve,' in Ireland at this time would promote loyalty and good feeling."

The Bishop of Limerick writes:—"'Crowned to Serve' pleasingly impresses my memory with the beautiful life of our late Queen, and strengthens our hope that our present gracious Sovereign will follow in the footsteps of his well-loved mother."

From the Archbishop of Dublin:—"I hope 'Crowned to Serve' will have as wide a circulation as its admirable predecessor, 'The Queen's Resolve.'"

From the Bishop of Derry:—"In this beautiful book, which I have read with real interest and pleasure, the author has admirably succeeded in showing the heart and real humanity within the life of Royalty."

New Edition. Now Ready, 10,000 more Copies, with 32 EXTRA PAGES and 3 ADDITIONAL ILLUSTRATIONS.

"Crowned to Serve."

By the Rev. CHARLES BULLOCK, B.D.

* * * The key-thought of the new book is the Royalty of Service—ICH DIEN, perhaps the lesson most needed to make a Happy Home or a Happy Nation.

We hope that in most of our large towns some loyal and generous friend will be glad to follow the example of MARTIN J. SUTTON, Esq., of Reading, who has given 700 copies of "Crowned to Serve" and 2,000 copies of "Crown Jewels."

WHAT A CLERGYMAN SAYS:

* * In one parish alone, that of Woking, the Vicar, the Rev. W. F. T. Hamilton, tells us 700 or 800 copies have easily been planted and readily paid for in as many homes.

TO THE PUBLISHER.—Please send me, in order of rotation, the following supply of "Crowned to Serve":

- 12 and under 25...1s. 1d. each. 50 and under 250...1s. each. 25...50...1s. 1d. 250 and over at 1d.

If desired, a Local Parish Inscription can be placed in gilt letters on the cover of each copy on a slight extra payment; but immediate instructions should be given to the Publisher.

The "LIVERPOOL MERCURY" says:

"Should be brought to the notice of all who contemplate making a Coronation gift to young people. It is admirably suited for that purpose as well as for a place in popular libraries."

The "HEREFORD TIMES" says:

"Conveniently fitted for wide circulation amongst all classes—the home library, birthday and other gifts, Sunday and Voluntary and Board School prizes, men's Bible and Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Classes, the police, soldiers, sailors, and mechanics."

The "KENT MESSENGER" says:

"'Crowned to Serve' is one of the most interesting books dealing with the King and Queen that we have yet seen. It cannot fail to bind one's attention. It is a most useful volume for presentation at this auspicious period."

A Single Copy, sent Post Free on receipt of 1s. 6d.

All letters and orders for quantities should be addressed to the Publisher, Mr. CHARLES MURRAY.

BYGONE DAYS: a Story of Village Life.
By Jno. T. PROCTOR. In crown 8vo., cloth, price 3s. 6d. net.
The story is written to illustrate the manners and customs, religion and superstition, of Lincolnshire village life in the early part of the nineteenth century, the redeeming and elevating influence of love in the lower circles of human society giving the picture a bright and cheery tone. Although the characters and places are disguised, neither they nor the incidents narrated are fictitious, but real, and drawn from the writer's personal experience. Many of them will, no doubt, be recognised by older people still living in the district.

THE COLLIERs OF WINDY HILL:
Crucial Moments in a Welsh Village.

By WILFRID SPARROY,
Author of "Persian Children of the Royal Family."

When the curtain rises Myfanwy Phoenix is dead, but her memory lives on, influencing the lives of her friends at crucial moments. Thus the story is episodal; it is also dramatic, impersonal, a bit of life in a field that is fresh to modern literature. The scene, which is laid in a Welsh colliery village, is suggestive of the Celtic spirit, with its earnestness of outlook and its unwavering faith in the realization of its dreams.
