The PEOPLE'S PSALTER:

A Plain Book for those who wish to use the Psalms in Church with intelligence and devotion.

By the Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.

(Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York),

RECTOR OF LAMBETH.

"The scheme is a most useful one, and we cannot think that any who make use of Dr. Walpole's aid will fail to appreciate the use of a Psalter in public worship far more than they have hitherto been able to do."—Christian Times.

"We think that this little book may be a useful help by suggesting ways in which different Psalms may be applied to present-day difficulties, and to the problems and anxieties with which the Church is always confronted."—Guardian.

COMMUNION AND OFFERING

BY

THE REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.

*(Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York),
RECTOR OF LAMBETH.*

THE object of this little book is to help Communicants to an intelligent appreciation of our Communion Office. Whilst it endeavours to supply help for Preparation and Thanksgiving by suitable prayers and hymns, its chief aim is to place those who use it in possession of the meaning of each part of the service. For this purpose the Service is divided into three parts, and each of these into clearly marked divisions. The use of it will, it is hoped, soon show what the main idea of the Service is, and how each part contributes to it. And it is believed that the more closely the structure is considered the more clearly will it appear that Offering and Communion are the leading characteristics; not Offering alone, or Communion alone, but both interwoven, the one with the other. The book consists of a kalendar to contain the names of persons and events that we desire to remember at Communion, a short Introduction setting out the meaning and purpose of our Lord's Institution, the Service itself briefly explained step by step, suggestions for Preparation and Thanksgiving, and the leading thoughts of the Collects, Epistles, and Gospels. Primarily designed for the author's own Communicants and Confirmation Candidates at Lambeth, it is written simply and plainly, and bears in mind the difficulties that beset hurried lives in their preparation for Holy Communion and the necessity of being intensely real where all is so real. That they may be helped to help themselves is its chief object.

The work is issued in a conveniently portable size, being divided into three parts, and arranged systematically under the subordinate subjects.

INTROSPECTIVE ESSAYS.

By GRACE A. MURRAY.

Extract from Preface. These little essays contain a mingling of idealism and pessimism, of faith and unfaith; but in the latter case there is no mocking spirit. For hypocrisy, under the guise of religion, so often the means of warping and embittering sensitive natures, only contempt is possible; but for the sincere beliefs of all religions, the deepest respect should be shown. There would be less strife and more charity could Christian people but see that the spirit of Christianity does not consist in dogma alone, and that the feelings of others on the great subject of religion may be as sacred and as worthy as their own.

In royal 16mo., bound in parchment, price 1s. 6d.

ANGELS.

By AGNES CECIL FISHER.

Author of "A Short and Simple Life of St. Paul," "Simple Instructions on the Prayer-Book," etc.

Extract from Preface. Having found in my dealing with children, and even with those of maturer age, how little is known about the Heavenly Host, I have endeavoured in a short and simple booklet, Angels, to show how closely they are connected with our daily lives, and that they are ever at our side to help us at all times.

Should my small effort enable others to realize this thought, and to find comfort in it, I shall be truly thankful, and hope it may be found both instructive and helpful.

VITAL RELIGION :

or, The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

By Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, and Rector of Lambeth.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

THE Committee very earnestly call the attention of all friends of missionary work to these numbers, which, they believe, very clearly show that the Society has used every effort during the past years to go forward and to take advantage of the many opportunities afforded by the wonderful change in the mind of the Jews towards Christianity.

And, moreover, this increase in the Missionary Staff has been made with but an average income, and has been accomplished only by the strictest economy, the most careful consideration of every item of expenditure, and the loyal support of the whole staff of the Society.

It is absolutely impossible to do more with the present income; in fact, most of the existing work is now sorely crippled in its operations.

With the burden of an outstanding deficit of £4,645 upon them, the Committee cannot go forward in the way which the growing exigencies of the work demand, and new and increased efforts are absolutely necessary.

The Committee, whilst being most thankful for all generous help in the past, urgently ask that this appeal may have the prayerful and serious consideration and support of all God's people.
