Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, Rector of Lambeth.

The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."—The Guardian.

"A successful effort has been made to adopt many of the passages to the Church's round of fasts and festivals. The work of selection from the poet is always a critical process. It is not always well done, but here the most fastidious critic will not be able to withhold his praise."—Saint Andrew.

The Spirit of God in Biblical Literature.

A STUDY in the HISTORY OF RELIGION.

By IRVING F. WOOD, Ph.D.

Professor of Biblical Literature, Northampton, Mass.

The Scotsman says: "It is a learned and interesting study of a special aspect of the Bible, in which it retraces the growth from the earliest Scriptures down to the last books in the New Testament of the religious idea of the Holy Spirit. 'The problem of the book,' its author says, 'is not, What is the Spirit of God? It is rather, What was the Spirit of God supposed to be at each stage of its Biblical development?' To this question the work returns an elaborate, systematic, and erudite answer, which cannot but prove instructive to students of the historical origin and progress of the central ideas of religion."

A New Edition. Tenth Thousand. Cloth gilt, 1s. 6d.

THE OLD GOSPEL EVER NEW:

The Story of Naaman; or, Sin and its Cure.

"The Old Gospel is Ever New." The Gospel, in its essential simplicity, is as truly the utterance of what may be termed the "Historic Parable" of Naaman's Story in the Old Testament as it is the utterance of the Divine Teacher's inimitable parable of "The Prodigal Son" in the New Testament. "The Way Home" of the sinner to God is the lesson of both parables. Hence the writer's aim has simply been to produce a companion volume to his former book, "The Way Home," which he trusts, by God's blessing, may help to fasten the minds of anxious and enquiring readers on the same essential verities of Gospel truth, which are certainly less prominently dwelt upon than they used to be.—The Preface.

. The two volumes, which have already passed through many Editions, were originally issued at the price of 8s. 6d. They are now, in an illustrated and more attractive form, sold for One Shilling and Sixpence, furnishing an example of the possible cheapness of books, if they can be printed in numbers corresponding with the circulation of our popular magazines. The publisher will be glad to forward Specimen Copy, free by post, to any address, on receipt of twelve stamps for each. SPECIAL PRICES to the Clergy and others for quantities for distribution.
