THE YOUNG PREACHER'S GUIDE;

OR,

Secrets of Success in Sacred Oratory, as gathered from the Greatest Masters of the Art.

BY THE

REV. GILBERT MONKS,

Author of "Practical Guide to Bible Class Conductors," "Manual of Short Liturgies," etc.

WITH A PREFACE BY THE VEN. ARCHDEACON OF LONDON.

The object of this work is to show, with the aid of the best teachers upon the subject, the successive steps to be taken by young teachers, whereby, in the making and giving of their addresses, they may confidently expect to achieve success; and, by disregarding which, must no less certainly fail. Having studied for many years, and with special care, the questions of speaking in general and preaching in particular, the author has put into his book the best things which he has gleaned in the course of his reading and observation.

Full of oratorical biography, anecdotes of famous speakers and preachers, precepts and advice of homiletic professors, quotations from ancient and modern authors—in short, of just those things which the young preacher most requires to know and delights to read, the author trusts that his book may be found of real use to young beginners, for whom, in the main, it was written; and incidentally, to speakers in general, whether in sacred or secular cause.

PROFESSOR RAMSAY'S LATEST WORK.

With Plates and Illustrations. 8vo., cloth, 12s.

The LETTERS to the SEVEN CHURCHES of ASIA,

AND THEIR PLACE IN THE PLAN OF THE APOCALYPSE.

By W. M. RAMSAY, D.C.L., Litt.D, LL.D.,

Professor of Humanity in the University of Aberdeen.

"No writer, so far as we know, has hitherto approached the Apocalypse from the historical and geographical side—and, indeed, very few men beside Professor Ramsay possess the knowledge of Asia Minor which is requisite to do so. . . . Professor Ramsay brings to his task such a clearness of insight, such an infectious enthusiasm, so intimate and picturesque a knowledge of the country and period, that he cannot fail to stimulate study of what is one of the least known and most valuable books of Holy Scripture."—Church Times.

"It presents in a connected and permanent form the mature convictions of our first living authority upon the affairs of Asia Minor at the time when the Apocalypse was written. Whatever can be done by expert knowledge to throw light upon the conditions under which Christianity began its course in the Asian cities has been done here with a lavish hand."

—Guardian.

THE OLD GOSPEL EVER NEW:

The Story of Naaman; or, Sin and its Cure.

"The Old Gospel is Ever New." The Gospel, in its essential simplicity, is as truly the utterance of what may be termed the "Historic Parable" of Naaman's Story in the Old Testament as it is the utterance of the Divine Teacher's inimitable parable of "The Prodigal Son" in the New Testament. "The Way Home" of the sinner to God is the lesson of both parables. Hence the writer's aim has simply been to produce a companion volume to his former book, "The Way Home," which he trusts, by God's blessing, may help to fasten the minds of anxious and enquiring readers on the same essential verities of Gospel truth, which are certainly less prominently dwelt upon than they used to be.—The Preface.

*. The two volumes, which have already passed through many Editions, were originally issued at the price of 8s. 6d. They are now, in an illustrated and more attractive form, sold for One Shilling and Sixpence; furnishing an example of the possible cheapness of books, if they can be printed in numbers corresponding with the circulation of our popular magazines. The publisher will be glad to forward Specimen Copy, free by post, to any address, on receipt of twelve stamps for each. SPECIAL PRICES to the Clergy and others for quantities for distribution.

FOUNDED five years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held four hundred meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and thirty sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and twenty branch lending libraries.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. In addition to the fourteen ladies residing in the Home, the League now has Sisters working in very poor districts in North London, Birmingham, Liverpool, and Plymouth.

It opened, on June 4th, 1904, a Seaside Convalescent Home for poor children, which is worked in conjunction with, and as a branch of, the Church Sisters' Home. The ladies from that Home, working in some of the poorest London parishes, have brought under their notice many most deserving cases where a Seaside Home is of the greatest practical value.

It has established two of the finest schools for girls in the country. At one of these (Uplands' School, St. Leonards-on-Sea) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford for the training of secondary women teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organisation.
