THE OLD GOSPEL EVER NEW:

The Story of Naaman; or, Sin and its Cure.

"The Old Gospel is Ever New." The Gospel, in its essential simplicity, is as truly the utterance of what may be termed the "Historic Parable" of Naaman's Story in the Old Testament as it is the utterance of the Divine Teacher's inimitable parable of "The Prodigal Son" in the New Testament. "The Way Home" of the sinner to God is the lesson of both parables. Hence the writer's aim has simply been to produce a companion volume to his former book, "The Way Home," which he trusts, by God's blessing, may help to fasten the minds of anxious and enquiring readers on the same essential verities of Gospel truth, which are certainly less prominently dwelt upon than they used to be.—The Preface.

. The two volumes, which have already passed through many Editions, were originally issued at the price of 8s. 6d. They are now, in an illustrated and more attractive form, sold for One Shilling and Sixpence; furnishing an example of the possible cheapness of books, if they can be printed in numbers corresponding with the circulation of our popular magazines. The publisher will be glad to forward Specimen Copy, free by post, to any address, on receipt of twelve stamps for each. SPECIAL PRICES to the Clergy and others for quantities for distribution.

FOUNDED five years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held four hundred meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and thirty sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and twenty branch lending libraries.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. In addition to the fourteen ladies residing in the Home, the League now has Sisters working in very poor districts in North London, Birmingham, Liverpool, and Plymouth.

It opened, on June 4th, 1904, a Seaside Convalescent Home for poor children, which is worked in conjunction with, and as a branch of, the Church Sisters' Home. The ladies from that Home, working in some of the poorest London parishes, have brought under their notice many most-deserving cases where a Seaside Home is of the greatest practical value.

It has established two of the finest schools for girls in the country. At one of these (Uplands' School, St. Leonards-on-Sea) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford, for the training of secondary women teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organisation.

THE SEEKER.

A Quarterly Magazine, devoted to the Search for God and the true Self.

Edited by the Rev. G. W. ALLEN, Vicar of St. James's, Bradford.

Author of "The Mission of Evil," "Wonderful Words and Works," etc.

MANY are asking why it is that religion has not more of the power that it ought to be capable of exercising over the hearts of men. There can only be one answer: that while the world will admit the form of religion, it has lost all interest in the power. Men mistake the significance of this life; and seek for pleasure, instead of for the Divine realities. So the highest pleasure remains unfound; and the greater things of life—power to make others blessed, and to perfect our own character—are lost in the pursuit of the smaller—wealth, luxury, and excitement.

The main object of "The Seeker" will be to consider dispassionately the problem thus indicated. The point of view assumed will be that of the Christian Scriptures. The world needs no new religion, but it does need a deeper and more spiritual understanding of the old. Such an understanding is the object of our search. We appeal for support to all who desire to be seekers after God and helpers of the brethren.

Subscription, 2s. a year, or 2s. 2d. post free, should be sent to the Editor.

The Editor will be pleased to send a copy of the first number on approval to any one who will send to him his or her name and address, and six penny stamps. If the copy is returned within a week, undamaged, 5d. will be refunded.

A FIT OF HAPPINESS, and Other Essays. From THE SPECTATOR. By CECIL GRAY.

"Solid and sensible reading. The themes are not commonplace, neither is the manner of discussing them. Fresh, vigorous thoughts, well put, are to be found on every page."

—Aberdeen Free Press

"In many of these essays there is a vein of pleasant humour, in some a healthy optimism and a living sympathy with the study of mankind through man, and all are written with freshness and vigour."—Scotsman.
