Notable Examples of Christian Conversion.

BY

REV. C. S. ISAACSON, M.A.,

Author of "Roads to Christ," "Roads from Rome," "Rome in Many Lands," etc.

THIS work is in some measure supplementary to Mr. Isaacson's former book, "Roads to Christ." It is again a volume of conversions, eminently suited to times of revival. The subjects of the stories are not generally such well-known men as in the earlier book, but are perhaps of more general interest, as they are taken from more ordinary life. They are all believed to be true narratives, and are calculated not only to point the way to seeking souls, but also to help workers to deal with the anxious and lead them to the Saviour.

Many well-known religious writers have aided Mr. Isaacson in his work. Prebendary H. E. Fox tells a wonderful story of grace which occurred in his early ministry in London, and another connected with the Church Missionary Society. Canon Hay Aitken tells of grace in parochial missions, and Cecil Polhill (one of the Cambridge seven) of grace in Thibet. The venerable Canon Christopher, of Oxford, contributes two stories, and so does Miss Catharine Marsh, the gifted author of "English Hearts and Hands." Dr. James Paton gives one of his "beautiful characters," and Miss Agnes Weston, of the Royal Naval Home, tells of a truly converted British bluejacket. Mr. W. T. Stead tells of his own conversion at school, and the Rev. Frank Swainson of his call through Moody's mission.

In all there are more than fifty stories, differing greatly one from another, but all exhibiting some wondrous dealing of the manifold wisdom and grace of God. It is a book full of encouragement, and we trust a blessing is in it.

COMMUNION AND OFFERING.

By the Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D., Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, Rector of Lambeth.

Extracts from Personal and Press Notices.

The Rev. B. M. O. HANCOCK writes: "I feel the book is worthy of unqualified recommendation. It meets a real need, and no one who uses the book but will be enabled to enter devoutly and intelligently into the Great Service which in Christ unites all in heaven and earth before the Throne of God in adoration, thanksgiving, and self-surrender; the devotions and instructions are fervid, wise, and catholic."

BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS: "I think it a most useful little book, and shall be glad to recommend it."

"The distinguishing feature of this little manual of Eucharistic instruction and worship is its constant insistence upon the structure of the Liturgy as determining the course of Eucharistic devotion. The prayers are simple and well chosen, and the instructions for the most part clear and definite."—Church Times.

"The value of this excellent little book is very great. It is for busy people who want short and good prayers, and who welcome sound instruction if it can be briefly given. The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."—The Guardian.

THE PEOPLE'S PSALTER:

A Plain Book for those who wish to use the Psalms in Church with intelligence and devotion.

"The book seems to be admirably adapted for its purpose, and I trust it will have a very wide usefulness."—BISHOP OF DURHAM.

"We think that this little book may be a useful help by suggesting ways in which different Psalms may be applied to present-day difficulties, and to the problems and anxieties with which the Church is always confronted."—Guardian.

VITAL RELIGION;

Or, The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

THE CHURCH & THE ADVERSARY.

A PRESENT-DAY CAVEAT.

By A LAYMAN.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.

"The Son of Man sowed good seed—wheat—in the world, the Devil sowed tares. The wheat and the tares are growing together, have been growing together all through the ages, and will continue to grow together until the consummation of the age."

This little book attempts to trace the influence of "the enemy" on the churches, as it has been revealed to us in the Bible; it is based mainly on "notes" made for the author's guidance from 1868 to 1905, during which years the chief occupation of his leisure has been the study of the New Testament; nearly the whole of his reading has been directed to this end. He has read works written by men belonging well-nigh to every church and school of thought, to many of whom he is indebted.

The quotations from the Fathers are from English translations, or taken from English books in which they have been used.

Those who have read Archbishop Benson's work on "The Revelation of St. John" will remember that he expresses his great obligation to Auberlen. The author has read Auberlen's "Prophecies of Daniel and the Revelations of St. John" so often, and so much, that he cannot express in adequate terms his sense of his indebtedness to that great spiritual Swiss divine. The quotations from German authors are practically all taken from Auberlen.

MANY are asking why it is that religion has not more of the power that it ought to be capable of exercising over the hearts of men. There can only be one answer: that while the world will admit the form of religion, it has lost all interest in the power. Men mistake the significance of this life, and seek for pleasure, instead of for the Divine realities. So the highest pleasure remains unfound; and the greater things of life—power to make others blessed, and to perfect our own character—are lost in the pursuit of the smaller—wealth, luxury, and excitement.

The main object of "The Seeker" will be to consider dispassionately the problem thus indicated. The point of view assumed will be that of the Christian Scriptures. The world needs no new religion, but it does need a deeper and more spiritual understanding of the old. Such an understanding is the object of our search. We appeal for support to all who desire to be seekers after God and helpers of the brethren.

FOUNDED six years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held nearly four hundred and seventy meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and fifty sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and twenty branch lending libraries, which contain standard works of reference on the Bible and Prayer Book, and many books of theology, biography, and history.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. The Home now has twenty-four Sisters working under the clergy in very poor districts of London, Birmingham, Liverpool, and Plymouth. The Sisters give invaluable help to the over-worked Clergy in crowded parishes, where the poor are waiting to be reached, to be taught and helped in the many ways open only to women.

It has opened a seaside Convalescent Home at Birchington, where poor children, from the parishes in which the Church Sisters work, are sent for three or four weeks' change and care.

It has established two of the finest schools for girls in the country. At one of these (Uplands School, St. Leonard's-on-Sea) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford, for the training of women secondary teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organization.
