ANCIENT TYRE AND MODERN ENGLAND.

By PHILO-ANGLICANUS.

The object of this book is to point out the analogies which exist between Ancient Tyre and Modern England—an idea which is found in the sonnets of Newman and Keble in the "Lyra Apostolica." The Introduction affirms the principle which is deduced from Holy Scripture that ancient countries or cities may have a prophetic and modern application, which can be inferred from our Lord's teaching concerning Noah and Lot; and St. Paul's allusions to the History of Israel as being typical of the Christian Church (1 Cor. x. 1-11), and to Hagar, Isaac and Mount Sinai in the Epistle of the Galatians (Gal. iv. 21-31).

Next follow a few remarks on the physical Geography of Tyre, and a brief summary is given of its history.

The three great features of resemblance between Tyre and England are their ships, their colonies and their commerce. All these were characteristics for which Tyre was noted, as we gather from the prophet Ezekiel, and were more remarkable at that early age, especially that of the art of colonization, which is a peculiar gift that is not the endowment of every nation, but seems to be the special faculty of the Anglo-Saxon race. Ezekiel in the 27th chapter of his prophecy gives a wonderful account of the merchants of Tyre and of her imports and her merchandise, and it has been pronounced by many critics to be one of the most graphic and pictorial descriptions of ancient commerce ever written. These geographical references are expounded with some detail.

The book is seasonable, on account of the solemn times in which we live, when all are crying "Peace, peace," and the days of apostasy of Christendom and the manifestation of Antichrist may be drawing on apace.

Notable Examples of Christian Conversion.

BY

REV. C. S. ISAACSON, M.A.,

Author of "Roads to Christ," "Roads from Rome," "Rome in Many Lands," etc.

THIS work is in some measure supplementary to Mr. Isaacson's former book, "Roads to Christ." It is again a volume of conversions, eminently suited to times of revival. The subjects of the stories are not generally such well-known men as in the earlier book, but are perhaps of more general interest, as they are taken from more ordinary life. They are all believed to be true narratives, and are calculated not only to point the way to seeking souls, but also to help workers to deal with the anxious and lead them to the Saviour.

Many well-known religious writers have aided Mr. Isaacson in his work. Prebendary H. E. Fox tells a wonderful story of grace which occurred in his early ministry in London, and another connected with the Church Missionary Society. Canon Hay Aitken tells of grace in parochial missions, and Cecil Polhill (one of the Cambridge seven) of grace in Thibet. The venerable Canon Christopher, of Oxford, contributes two stories, and so does Miss Catharine Marsh, the gifted author of "English Hearts and Hands." Dr. James Paton gives one of his "beautiful characters," and Miss Agnes Weston, of the Royal Naval Home, tells of a truly converted British bluejacket. Mr. W. T. Stead tells of his own conversion at school, and the Rev. Frank Swainson of his call through Moody's mission.

In all there are more than fifty stories, differing greatly one from another, but all exhibiting some wondrous dealing of the manifold wisdom and grace of God. It is a book full of encouragement, and we trust a blessing is in it.

EXTRACTS FROM PERSONAL AND PRESS NOTICES OF "STORIES OF GRACE."

"May it be widely read!"—BISHOP OF DURHAM.

"A most delightful and deeply interesting book."—MISS CATHARINE MARSH.

"Most interesting and useful. It greatly glorifies 'The God of all grace.'"—CANON CHRISTOPHER (Oxford).

"The selection of cases is very good, and they are well told. I trust it may be much used to the glory of His grace."—PREBENDARY H. E. FOX, C.M.S.

"I trust its mission may be for Christ everywhere."—MISS WESTON (Royal Sailors' Rest).

"I have found 'Stories of Grace' most interesting, stimulating, and encouraging."—CANON H. TROTTER.

"Prebendary Fox, Canon Christopher, the venerable Miss Marsh, Mr. Cecil Polhill, Miss Weston, and other have furnished Mr. Isaacson with instances of spiritual blessing known to themselves and presumably new to the public."—Record.

FOUNDED six years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held nearly four hundred and seventy meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and fifty sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and twenty branch lending libraries, which contain standard works of reference on the Bible and Prayer Book, and many books of theology, biography, and history.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. The Home now has twenty-four Sisters working under the clergy in very poor districts of London, Birmingham, Liverpool, and Plymouth. The Sisters give invaluable help to the over-worked Clergy in crowded parishes, where the poor are waiting to be reached, to be taught and helped in the many ways open only to women.

It has opened a seaside Convalescent Home at Birchington, where poor children, from the parishes in which the Church Sisters work, are sent for three or four weeks' change and care.

It has established two of the finest schools for girls in the country. At one of these (Uplands School, St. Leonard's-on-Sea) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford, for the training of women secondary teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organization.

Personality and Power;

Or, THE SECRET OF REAL INFLUENCE.

BY

REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York; Rector of Lambeth.

FROM THE PREFACE.

The object of this volume may be expressed in the words with which Mr. Shorthouse explains the purpose of "John Inglesant"—namely, "to exalt the unpopular doctrine that the end of existence is not the good of one's neighbour but one's own culture." This is not, as it might seem, at first sight, selfish, for only by strict attention to self can we hope to be of use to others. "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" implies a fond regard for self. In seeking to fulfil his aim, the Author has rested his case on concrete illustrations rather than abstract reasoning. He has always felt the power of a book like "Self Help," where every lesson is taught by example rather than precept, and he longed to adopt this method. It seemed that if he could find characters highly gifted and having the advantage of position, opportunities, scholarship, and the like, and could show by way of contrast that others, without these helps and simply by the grace of their personality, exercised the larger influence, he would be adding an argument to the cause of self-culture which might be of value. He was guided to go to Scripture for this help, because only there could he be certain of finding the real characteristics of men's lives revealed.

COMMUNION AND OFFERING.

By the Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D., Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, Rector of Lambeth.

Extracts from Personal and Press Notices.

The Rev. B. M. O. HANCOCK writes: "I feel the book is worthy of unqualified recommendation. It meets a real need, and no one who uses the book but will be enabled to enter devoutly and intelligently into the Great Service which in Christ unites all in heaven and earth before the Throne of God in adoration, thanksgiving, and self-surrender; the devotions and instructions are fervid, wise, and catholic."

BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS: "I think it a most useful little book, and shall be glad to recommend it."

"The distinguishing feature of this little manual of Eucharistic instruction and worship is its constant insistence upon the structure of the Liturgy as determining the course of Eucharistic devotion. The prayers are simple and well chosen, and the instructions for the most part clear and definite."—Church Times.

"The value of this excellent little book is very great. It is for busy people who want short and good prayers, and who welcome sound instruction if it can be briefly given. The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."—The Guardian.

THE PEOPLE'S PSALTER:

A Plain Book for those who wish to use the Psalms in Church with intelligence and devotion.

"The book seems to be admirably adapted for its purpose, and I trust it will have a very wide usefulness."—BISHOP OF DURHAM.

"We think that this little book may be a useful help by suggesting ways in which different Psalms may be applied to present-day difficulties, and to the problems and anxieties with which the Church is always confronted."—Guardian.

VITAL RELIGION;

Or, The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

One hundred years ago our sailors won for us the inestimable blessing of peace around our Island coasts.

To-day we owe to our sailors: (1) The safety of our Empire; (2) our food and luxuries; (3) the safe passage of our commerce, mails, friends and relatives to all parts of the world.

We can show our gratitude by helping The Missions to Seamen to maintain its 229 "Sky Pilots" (Chaplains, Readers, Boatmen, etc.), and 116 "Harbours of Refuge" (Seamen's Churches and Institutes) in 86 Seaports all over the World.

Expenditure in 1904, £50,306. Contributions, Offerings, Drawing-Room Meeting Collections, etc., will be gratefully received by the Secretary, Stuart C. Knox, Esq., M.A., 11, Buckingham St., Strand, W.C.
