FOUNDED six years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held nearly four hundred and seventy meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and fifty sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and thirty-two branch lending libraries, which contain standard works of reference on the Bible and Prayer Book, and many books of theology, biography, and history.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. The Home now has thirty Sisters working under the clergy in very poor districts of London, Birmingham, Liverpool, Sheffield, Ipswich, and Plymouth. The Sisters give invaluable help to the over-worked Clergy in crowded parishes, where the poor are waiting to be reached, to be taught and helped in the many ways open only to women.

It has opened a seaside Convalescent Home at Birchington, where poor children, from the parishes in which the Church Sisters work, are sent for three or four weeks' change and care.

It has established three of the finest schools for girls in the country. At two of these (Uplands School, St. Leonard's-on-Sea, and Milham Ford School, Oxford) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford, for the training of women secondary teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organization.

Personality and Power;

Or, THE SECRET OF REAL INFLUENCE.

BY

REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York; Rector of Lambeth.

FROM THE PREFACE.

The object of this volume may be expressed in the words with which Mr. Shorthouse explains the purpose of "John Inglesant," namely, "to exalt the unpopular doctrine that the end of existence is not the good of one's neighbour, but one's own culture." This is not, as it might seem at first sight, selfish, for only by strict attention to self can we hope to be of use to others. "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" implies a fond regard for self. In seeking to fulfil his aim, the Author has rested his case on concrete illustrations rather than abstract reasoning. He has always felt the power of a book like "Self-Help," where every lesson is taught by example rather than precept, and he longed to adopt this method. It seemed that if he could find characters highly gifted and having the advantage of position, opportunities, scholarship, and the like, and could show by way of contrast that others without these helps and simply by the grace of their personality exercised the larger influence, he would be adding an argument to the cause of self-culture which might be of value. He was guided to go to Scripture for this help, because only there could he be certain of finding the real characteristics of men's lives revealed.

The object of this series of papers is to place before Jews of Western training and education such aspects of Judaism and Christianity as seem to the Authors to be of special importance, more particularly in their mutual relations, whether of affinity or of contrast. The papers are written confessedly from the Christian point of view, and by writers who have given special attention to the two religions.

COMMUNION AND OFFERING.

By the Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D., Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, Rector of Lambeth.

Extracts from Personal and Press Notices.

The Rev. B. M. O. HANCOCK writes: "I feel the book is worthy of unqualified recommendation. It meets a real need, and no one who uses the book but will be enabled to enter devoutly and intelligently into the Great Service which in Christ unites all in heaven and earth before the Throne of God in adoration, thanksgiving, and self-surrender; the devotions and instructions are fervid, wise, and catholic."

BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS: "I think it a most useful little book, and shall be glad to recommend it."

"The distinguishing feature of this little manual of Eucharistic instruction and worship is its constant insistence upon the structure of the Liturgy as determining the course of Eucharistic devotion. The prayers are simple and well chosen, and the instructions for the most part clear and definite."—Church Times.

"The value of this excellent little book is very great. It is for busy people who want short and good prayers, and who welcome sound instruction if it can be briefly given. The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."—The Guardian.

FOURTH EDITION. In 32mo. size, cloth limp, for the pocket, 2s. ; also for presentation, in leather binding, 3s. 5; in lambskin, 3s. 6d. ; and in Persian calf, 4s. 6d.

THE PEOPLE'S PSALTER:

A Plain Book for those who wish to use the Psalms in Church with intelligence and devotion.

"The book seems to be admirably adapted for its purpose, and I trust it will have a very wide usefulness."—BISHOP OF DURHAM.

"We think that this little book may be a useful help by suggesting ways in which different Psalms may be applied to present-day difficulties, and to the problems and anxieties with which the Church is always confronted."—Guardian.

SEVENTH EDITION. In crown 8vo., cloth, gilt lettered, price 2s. 6d. net

VITAL RELIGION;

Or, The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

In 32mo., 8 pages, price One Halfpenny.
