STORIES OF GRACE.

Notable Examples of Christian Conversion.

BY

REV. C. S. ISAACSON, M.A.,

Author of "Roads to Christ," "Roads from Rome," "Rome in Many Lands," etc.

"In these true narratives Mr. Isaacson shows us how by sovereign grace more than fifty persons of all sorts and conditions were turned from darkness to light, and from sinners became saints."—Pentecostal Power.

"We hope the book will have a large body of readers."—Church of England League Gazette.

"A book that evangelists in particular will be glad to read."—Christian World.

"This is a book to cheer the Christian's heart, to send the dependent labourer forward with new courage and expectation, as well as to add excellent illustration to the repertoire of the preacher."—Christianian.

"The book is specially suited to times of revival."—Aberdeen Free Press.

"The book is one of real value to the student of religion and psychology, as well as to the preacher and evangelist."—New Age.

"One of the most interesting narratives is by Mr. W. T. Stead, who relates his own conversion at the age of eleven years. The book will much interest persons who enjoy this kind of literature."—Dundee Advertiser.

"A work which is well fitted to help those who desire to be wise to win souls."—Methodist Recorder.

Light on the Problems of Life.

Suggestive Thoughts gleaned from the Teachings of the Ven. ARCHDEACON WILBERFORCE.

By M. B. ISITT.

The earnest desire of the compiler of this little volume is that it may soothe, enlighten and strengthen many a weary soul painfully conscious of the dark Enigma of Life, to which it is anxiously seeking some reasonable solution. Passages have therefore been selected which offer lucid and logical explanations as to the purpose of life and the destiny of man. It is believed that, in this condensed form and sequential manner, those who have already found inspiration for themselves in the Archdeacon's message may be glad to have this easy method of making it known to others. There are many in this age of doubt and hesitation who fear to adopt the reasonable views herein set forth. It is hoped that this classified collection of arresting thoughts, arranged so as to enable the reader quickly to grasp the author's answer to vital questions, may supply a felt need and provide an acceptable volume, which thoughtful people can take up at odd moments and therein glean new light and fresh courage from the consciousness of the reality of the Fatherhood of God.

"This is the sort of book one is always glad to have at hand, and will certainly be of great service and help to the despondent and doubting."—Whitehall Review.

"It will be found that the compilation reflects earnest care and intelligence."—Skeat.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS.

THE INTERLINEAR BIBLE: The AUTHORIZED VERSION and the REVISED VERSION, Together with the Marginal Notes of both Versions and Central References.

In this edition the agreement of the Revised and Authorized Versions is shown in large type. When the two Versions differ, the renderings of both are printed in small type. Those of the Revised Version in the upper line, and those of the Authorized Version in the lower line. A blank in the upper or lower line indicates the absence of any corresponding words in the Revised Version or the Authorized Version respectively. Thus the large type read in conjunction with the upper line of small type gives the continuous text of the Revised Version, and read in conjunction with the lower line of small type it gives the continuous text of the Authorized Version. On India Paper, with 12 Maps and Index. (Size 8½ x 5½ inches.) Bound in cloth, gilt top, 18s. 6d. net; bound in French morocco, limp, with round corners, and red under gold edges, 21s. 6d.; and in other styles of which the prices may be had on application to the Bookellers.

A CONCORDANCE TO THE SEPTUAGINT and other Greek Versions of the O.T. (including the Apocryphal Books). By the late Edwin Hatch and H. A. Redpath. In six Parts. Imperial 4to., cloth, £1 1s. each.

THE “R.T.S.” LIST.

By the Rev. W. H. Griffith Thomas, D.D., Principal of Wycliffe Hall, Oxford.

THE APOSTLE PETER:

Outline Studies in His Life, Character, and Writings. Crown 8vo., cloth gilt, with Photogravure Portrait of Author, 3s. 6d.

The Record says: "It is not a dull, lifeless, academic study of the Apostle’s life and work, but one which is obviously the fruit of a ripened Christian experience, and seeks before all things to apply the teaching of Scripture to the everyday life of the believer."

The Guardian says: "There is good work in the book, which is likely to be useful both to Sunday-school teachers and to clergy in search of material for sermons."

The Expositor says: "It is a volume of scholarship, of original work and insight."

THE DEVOTIONAL COMMENTARY.

Edited by the Rev. A. R. Buckland, M.A.

COMMUNION AND OFFERING.
By the Rev. G. H. S. WAlPOLE, D.D., Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, Rector of Lambeth.

Excerpts from Personal and Press Notices.
The Rev. B. M. O. HANCOCK writes: "I feel the book is worthy of unqualified recommendation. It meets a real need, and no one who uses the book but will be enabled to enter devoutly and intelligently into the Great Service which in Christ unites all in heaven and earth before the Throne of God in adoration, thanksgiving, and self-surrender; the devotions and instructions are fervid, wise, and catholic."

BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS: "I think it a most useful little book, and shall be glad to recommend it."

"The distinguishing feature of this little manual of Eucharistic instruction and worship is the constant insistence upon the structure of the Liturgy as determining the course of Eucharistic devotion. The prayers are simple and well chosen, and the instructions for the most part clear and definite."

"The value of this excellent little book is very great. It is for busy people who want short and good prayers, and who welcome sound instruction if it can be briefly given. The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."

THE PEOPLE’S PSALTER:
A Plain Book for those who wish to use the Psalms in Church with intelligence and devotion.

"The book seems to be admirably adapted for its purpose, and I trust it will have a very wide usefulness."

BISHOP OF DURHAM: "We think that this little book may be a useful help by suggesting ways in which different Psalms may be applied to present-day difficulties, and to the problems and anxieties with which the Church is always confronted."

VITAL RELIGION;
Or, The Personal Knowledge of Christ.

"The keynote of this interesting and beautiful book is the thought that religion is essentially the life of friendship and intimacy with God revealed in Jesus Christ. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the decay of experimental religion. The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how to find a basis for faith in actual experience."

THE LITANY.
Divided and arranged for particular intercession. (Reprinted from The People's Psalter.)

Price 4d. Reprinted on cardboard and enlarged, size 18 in. by 10½ in., the frontispiece from "COMMUNION AND OFFERING," entitled—

"In the Mount of the Lord it shall be seen."

INTENDED FOR USE IN CLASSES.

Personality and Power;
Or, THE SECRET OF REAL INFLUENCE.

BY

REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,
Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York; Rector of Lambeth.

Extracts from Reviews of “Personality and Power.”

“A series of thoughtful addresses on the secret of real influence. He shows how the development or revelation of the true self should be the aim of life, and that men best help others by what they are, not by what they have. . . . The book is one well worth careful study; and its reflections will be found stimulating.”—New Age.

“The writer has vigour in his own thought, and many a reader will be stimulated and helped when following Dr. Walpole as he develops his theme and illustrates and enforces it with so many concrete and inspiring examples.”—Western Morning News.

“The book is rich in fresh and suggestive considerations on character, its formation and influence, and should appeal to thoughtful and earnest readers.”—Aberdeen Free Press.

“A thoughtful and beautiful book. . . . These addresses are mature and sympathetic, and fitted to be most helpful. . . . Dr. Walpole feels more intensely than most that the secret of life is to develop the new personality on noble lines. . . . We have no doubt that this volume will by degrees make for itself an audience.”—Church Family Newspaper.

“Its aim is to show that power lies in personality, and that every personality—whether that of slave or King, pupil or master—so far as it is developed has influence. The book is based on addresses given by the author on various occasions during the last four years.”—Notts Guardian.

“This interesting and thoughtful volume by the Rector of Lambeth is the sequel to his stimulating and helpful work, entitled ‘Vital Religion; or, The Personal Knowledge of Jesus Christ.’ . . . Not the least attractive feature of the book is its philosophic breadth of mind. Not a single trace of narrowness of outlook or attitude is to be found within its pages. We therefore heartily commend this publication as one worthy of being read and re-read, believing, as we do, that it is a most helpful and inspiring work in every way.”—St. Andrew.
