A REMARKABLE BOOK ON THE PRESERVATION OF HEALTH.

DR. ANDREW WILSON, F.R.S.E., the distinguished authority on hygienic science and health questions, is evidently a believer in Thomas Carlyle's doctrine that there is no utility in pointing out misfortunes unless you at the same time indicate the remedy.

In his remarkable little book, "The Art of Living," just issued from the press, Dr. Wilson not only points out "our first duty to ourselves is to check illness at the outset," but he follows up this admonition with the more welcome information how we are to do it. He, so to speak, says: "You have the evil of ill-health to fight. Now, here's the weapon to fight it with. Strike for freedom." For example, he says: "Suppose a person has run down—feels languid, and is easily tired. If he neglects this warning—for all such signs and symptoms are Nature's warning to us—the possibility is that he will pass further afield into the great lone land of disease.

"Can he do anything to save himself from such a disastrous result? In the vast majority of cases he can restore his vigour." How? Dr. Wilson tells his reader how without delay, adding at once this remarkable statement: "Probably he will be advised to take a tonic. This in the main is good advice. Unfortunately, the number of tonics is legion, but if there exists any preparation which can combine in itself the properties of a tonic and restorative, and which at the same time can contribute to the nourishment and building up of the enfeebled body, it is evident such an agent must prove of the utmost value to everybody. I have found such a tonic and restorative in the preparation known as Sanatogen."

How the distinguished author found this tonic he tells us in an interesting bit of autobiography. "Recovering from an attack of influenza," he says, "and suffering from the severe weakness incidental to that ailment, Sanatogen was brought under my notice. I gave it a fair trial, and the results were all that could have been desired. In a short time my appetite improved, the weakness was conquered, and without the use of any other medicine or preparation I was restored to health." It is easy to believe that this experience led the doctor to make a thorough investigation into this specific which had served him so well.

Sanatogen, he tells us, "combines two distinct elements, one tonic and the other nutritive."

What the tonic and nutritive elements of Sanatogen are, and how they effect so much good, Dr. Wilson describes in simple, convincing terms. The whole passage is too long to quote, but one important remark of the writer may be given—namely, that one of the principal elements of Sanatogen "represents the substance which actually forms a very important, if not the most important, constituent of our brain and nervous system." How, through regenerating the nervous system, Sanatogen restores the functions of the digestive organs, and by rebuilding the tissues compensates the wear and tear of latter-day life; how it does away with the need of stimulants, and cures the sick by the natural method of making the body strong enough to drive out disease—all this makes engrossing and pleasant, as well as instructive, reading. This last contribution of his to the literature of health may certainly be calculated to carry joyful news to the ailing and weary.

A limited number of complete specimen copies of "The Art of Living," by Dr. Andrew Wilson, F.R.S.E., are available for distribution. A copy will gladly be sent gratis and post free on application to the publishers, F. WILLIAMS & Co., 83, Upper Thames Street, London, E.C., mentioning the Churchman.

The Churchman says:

“Mr. Sherlock’s well-known publication comes of age next year, and we congratulate him on twenty-one years of fine service on behalf of parish literature. The Church Monthly has done much to improve our parish magazines—indeed, it was the pioneer of the quality to which we are now accustomed. The illustrations have always been excellent, though we are glad to know that process blocks are no longer ignored. The Church Almanack has as its centre-piece the picture of Our Lord carrying His cross, by Ary Scheffer, with views of the English cathedrals as the border. This latter feature is a welcome repetition of a former year’s Almanack, and with the well-produced centre picture will doubtless make this Almanack attractive to many Churchmen.”

THE MISSION OF THE CROSS. Meditations. By L. B.

As a record of the writer's search for "Truth," this book is offered in the hope that it may be an incentive to some to seek and find for themselves the Pearl of great price, which is the Love of God. Amid the many varying creeds, and the unbelief of the present day, when men are asking "What is Truth?" it is well if each one endeavoured to answer this question for himself; the answer is to be found in the Scriptures. If we would build up a Belief which shall stand eternally, we must build on the rock which is the Word of God. To emphasize this Truth and assist searchers after the Peace which comes with the Knowledge of Christ and His teaching, has been the author's purpose in putting this work forth.

Depicted in 24 Original Coloured Drawings by HAROLD COPPING (mounted on stout artistic paper). Described by the LORD BISHOP OF DURHAM.

JOHN OXENHAM says: "Mr. Copping has done what I have never found before—depicted Christ in a way that not only does not repel, but actually satisfies one."

The Morning Post says: "It is difficult to say whether the drawings or Dr. Moule's simple but always eloquent talks about them are the most impressive. The artist's characterisation is surprisingly forcible, his grouping is picturesque, and his colouring is brilliant, but never glaring nor inharmonious. Some of his pictures are to be prized indeed."

NATIONAL CHURCH LEAGUE.

For the Defence and Promotion of the Reformed Faith of the Church of England.

"CATHOLIC, APOSTOLIC, REFORMED, PROTESTANT."

Chairman of Executive—THE VERY REV. THE DEAN OF CANTERBURY.
General Secretary—Sir G. ROBERT LIGHTON, Bart.

THE NATIONAL CHURCH LEAGUE has been formed by the amalgamation of the Church of England League and the National Protestant Church Union.

It is the aim of the LEAGUE to maintain the comprehensive character of the Church of England in the broad and tolerant spirit which has been its glory in the past, while at the same time repudiating the errors which the recent Report of the Royal Commission on Ecclesiastical Discipline has shown to prevail to an increasing extent in the Church.

The LEAGUE endeavours to carry on its work on educational and spiritual lines. It sets forward works of piety and charity in cordial co-operation with all parochial clergy who are faithful to the principles of the English Reformation.

It aims at founding and supporting schools, Training Colleges, and religious institutions for inculcating, spreading, and defending those principles.

It supports the authorities of the National Church in the maintenance of the law, it upholds the Prayer Book and Articles as the standard of doctrine and worship in the Church of England, and opposes the introduction into the services of the Church of anything inconsistent therewith.

Membership of the LEAGUE is open only to members of the Church of England.

It organizes sermons and courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer Book, establishes branches and arranges Meetings throughout the country, and publishes and circulates literature bearing on Church questions.

Quotations for Pulpit Use.

A MANUAL FOR PREACHERS & SPEAKERS.

BY

DOROTHY J. TREVASKIS.

With a Preface by the Bishop of Southampton.

THE chief idea in selecting the quotations contained in this book has been to enable those who realize the beauty and helpfulness of poetical language—and yet whose extreme pressure of active work makes much study impossible—to at once turn up a number of extracts on a given subject, this giving an advantage which could otherwise only be acquired by the use of a considerable amount of time and labour.

Over 2,000 quotations are arranged under an alphabetical catena of subjects—such as Prayer, Faith, Communion, Worship, etc., 145 in number—placing the reader at once in touch with what he desires to use on these topics.

The quotations have been especially chosen which are suitable for use in the Pulpit, and they have been collected with a view to high literary character and appropriateness to this purpose rather than for their quantity.

The extracts have been made with much discrimination and judgment, and should prove acceptable to educated readers generally.

THE POETICAL WORKS OF H. FRANCIS LYTE.

Arranged in the order of their publication, with an Introduction on his Life and Writings.

By the Rev. J. APLEYARD.

Although Francis Lyte's hymns are so well known, and are sung by Christian people of all denominations and in all lands, few know how rich a store of verse he wrote, and how varied are their character and beauty.

His hymns and poems were scattered over a period of 35 years, and no attempt has hitherto been made to collect the entire works into one volume. The present collection contains the following books of verse which he wrote :

GENERAL POEMS AND HYMNS.

TALES IN VERSE ON THE LORD'S PRAYER.

SPIRIT OF THE PSALMS.

THE BATTLE OF SALAMANCA.

It is believed that this edition of Lyte's Poetical Works will be welcomed by those many thousands of readers who have found a benediction in his hymns, and as presenting in one volume the work of the author's lifetime.

Last year Grants were made to 101 Parishes, in which the need was greatest and the local efforts had been made most earnestly.

By REV. C. L. DRAWBRIDGE, M.A. 3s. 6d. net.

The CHURCHMAN says:

"This book is one to be unreservedly recommended. It should be in the hands of every clergyman and of every teacher in our Sunday-schools; and we think that teachers in other than Sunday-schools would do well to peruse it. We have read every word of it with interest and with entire sympathy; it is a book that appeals to one by reason of its wit as well as its wisdom, its sound principles as well as its homely common sense. Few better contributions to the Education Question have been penned than chapter viii. of this book."
