The British Home and Hospital for Incurables

For 71 years this invaluable Institution has ministered to middle class people who have lost their all in vain efforts to regain health and retain independence.

There are 103 patients at Streatham, where they receive home comforts and every attention for the remainder of their days.

There are 311 pensioners, each receiving £26 a year.

Those for whom we plead are very slow to plead for themselves. In spite of depression their needs in their weakness and distress must be supplied.

Bi-Centenary of the Moravian Missions

"The fine work of the Moravian Missionaries is known from Greenland to the Himalayas."—The Times

FOR two hundred years the Moravians have set a very high standard of sacrificial service. Their work touches all continents. No climate has been too noisome, no tribe too degraded, no land seemingly too fast closed to the Gospel for the God-given devotion of the Moravian Missionaries. In some fields they are the sole representatives of Protestant Missionary Work.

Please send generous help so that waiting opportunities may be grasped to enter many open doors.

A SPIRITUAL MINISTRY

So many congregations are being offered the husks of Modernism and Sacerdotalism when hungering for the Living Bread.

The Church Pastoral-Aid Society is working to secure a spiritual ministry in our Church.

There is urgent need of increased support in order to maintain existing work.

Over 50 parishes greatly needing workers must remain on the Waiting List unless a largely increased income is received.

ORDINATION FUND

This separate fund is practically exhausted, with a long list of men needing assistance.
