JULY, 1932.

Missionary Captured ! probably killed.

Antioch reports :

Miss Edgar of Latakia was removed from the City about 4 o'clock and very little has been heard of her since. There is no doubt but that she has been murdered and as a martyr, too. The truth may never come out, but we feel sure about it.

Most likely there will be more of this sort of thing . . . it is part of the price that some will have to pay.

The Evangelist you support had to leave and go elsewhere. To-day we hear he has had to leave that place also. This is his experience of taking up the Cross.

Please pray for these faithful labourers in Syria and Palestine.

Your gifts to support this truly Gospel work greatly appreciated.

AN IMPORTANT NEW BOOKTHROUGH THE PRAYER BOOK*An Exposition (pp. 399).

This book is an endeavour to interpret the spirit as well as the letter of the Prayer Book, to explain the origins and contents of its services, and to give an exposition on the subject-matter from cover to cover. It is not intended to be polemical, but rather an attempt at elucidation and illumination. It is intended to help not only the clergyman, the student, the Sunday School teacher, but the general body of churchpeople.

No Holiday

however lengthy or expensive can possibly restore to health and strength those for whom we plead. They are:—

- (1) The patients in our Home at Streatham.
- (2) Our pensioners receiving £26 each a year.
- (3) The many sufferers who are waiting for the benefit of the Home or the pension.

They are all people of the Middle Classes stricken and incapacitated by incurable disease.

Will you remember and help those beyond the reach of holiday benefits and blessings?
