The Churchman Advertiser.

APRIL, 1936.

A MISSIONARY'S letter recently received reveals somewhat the sad condition of the people. She says, " I returned home from the North, where the poverty was AWFUL. I was BESIEGED by people begging me to take them back with me, and they were ALL people who were in the last depths of poverty ; so, on my return, I brought TWO very poor widows, and NINE orphan children, whose lack of clothing made them almost indecent. A neighbour gave a frock to one girl, then others did the same. It was nice, and yet amusing, to see a girl disappear behind a car, at the call of some neighbour, and then return, highly pleased, with a dress on big enough for a grown person ; or a boy with a man's coat right down to his bare feet."

THE REFORMATION AND REUNION.

By the REV. C. SYDNEY CARTER, D.D.

Price 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"One of the most valuable studies which we have had the pleasure of reading for some time. . . . It proves that some things which the Anglo-Catholic has repeated so often and so dogmatically that he not only believes them himself, but has well-nigh persuaded others to accept their truth, have no historical justification at all. . . . The price of this excellent book is so low that we trust it will find the dissemination its merits deserve. It should be in the hands of all ministers, theological students, and many laymen."—The Expository Times.

THE LIFE AND WORK OF JOHN WYCLIFFE.

By CANON DYSON HAGUE, D.D.

Price 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"Dr. Dyson Hague has made full use of all the recent contributions to the literature of John Wycliffe, and has given us a useful book. The whole effect is excellent, and has been pronounced by many of those who have read it before publication to be the best of Dr. Dyson Hague's works."—The Church Gazette.

THE DAILY WALK.

Devotions for every day of the year.

Compiled by

CORNELIA, LADY WIMBORNE.

5s. and 3s. 6d.

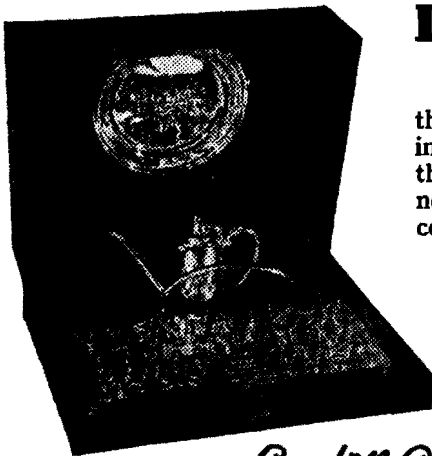

"In compiling this little book, the underlying thought in the first instance, was to help those who had been joined together in matrimony, to walk together in the narrow way. In order to give it a wider scope, an effort has been made to enlarge the choice of subjects and to make the compilation of use to people in general, but more especially to the young. Modern life often leaves but little time for devotional practice of any kind, and the daily portions selected are therefore short and adapted to the exigencies of a busy life."

Divine blessing is following the labours of Moravian Missionaries in East Central Africa. Because of that blessing a Communion Set was needed, and has been provided, for converts at Sikonge.

Funds for further advance in this fruitful mission field will be most gratefully acknowledged by Charles Hobday, Esq., Chairman and Hon. Sec., 70a Basinghall Street, London, E.C.2.

The inscription reads: "To The Glory of God. Presented to 'Kidugalo' by friends of the London Association in aid of Moravian Missions, December 1935."

Sunday School -by post

Amongst the widely-scattered settlements of Saskatoon, two Sunday School Vans, supported by the C.C.S., are making their visits, but so wide is the area that each settlement can be reached only about once in three years.

Over 6,000 children in this Diocese are dependent for religious instruction upon the Society's "Sunday School by Post."

Church people in the Homeland are earnestly asked to consider the greatness of the need, and to respond to its urgency by sending contributions to the Secretary,
