In Labrador, a hard winter

SCHOLARS, NAIN, LABRADOR.

will have to be faced by the Eskimos—not only because of the usual severity of the climate, but also because of their extreme poverty—which is increasing. Times have been very bad indeed among the seal-fishers. They cannot possibly improve until winter ends.

Our Association, counting it a privilege to aid the Eskimos in their time of great distress, asks your financial assistance. Do you feel led to give it? If so, please reply to—

The future peace of the world and the maintenance of everything worth while in our present civilisation, depends very largely upon the character and purpose of the British people in all parts of the globe.

- No agency has done more to extend the work of the Christian Church in the remote parts of the Empire than the Colonial and Continental Church Society.
- In Western Canada, where extreme poverty continues, self-sacrificing clergy are existing on the most meagre stipends. The Bishops in their extremity are appealing for special gifts and grants to meet the most needy cases.

If you will kindly respond, please send a contribution to
