

The Findings.

1. In this day of crisis the challenge to Evangelical Churchmen is to unity of spirit, doctrine, purpose, and effort, centred in JESUS CHRIST, and Him crucified, and directed to the changing of individual lives; for the building up of the Church which is His Body for her work of national and world wide evangelization.

2. The genuine Evangelical tradition in the Church of England has combined emphasis on the value of the individual soul with concern for social righteousness. In the Evangelical Missionary Societies, for instance, the preaching of the Gospel has gone hand in hand with medical, educational and industrial work. To-day the growing desire for true community life, together with the widespread breakdown of moral sanctions, constitutes a fresh challenge to Evangelicals to apply the New Testament synthesis of faith and works to the varied relations of modern life.

3. The conditions that are likely to arise out of the new Education Act, combined with the interest now being aroused in the Evangelism of Youth, will present to Evangelical Churchmen an opportunity that must be promptly faced, and taken to the full. The Conference urges united Evangelical action to stimulate practical interest in the maintenance and extension of Church Schools and Colleges.

4. The Conference, appalled at the persecution of Jews and Christians on the Continent of Europe, tenders to one and all prayerful and heartfelt sympathy and urges all possible support for practical measures of relief; and also prays for and looks forward to the time when all Christians shall be united in the witness to their common faith and loyalty to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

5. To-day the whole Church is challenged to a sacrificial response to the evangelistic, educational and other needs of a world ravaged by war.

6. The Conference is of opinion that it is the duty of Evangelical Churchmen to express their full accord with their brethren in South India, who are seeking to heal the divisions which are not of their own making but have come to them from Western Christendom; and to give strong and prayerful support to the Scheme of Church Union in South India.
