

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

a, b, etc.	Where only part of a verse is referred to, this is indicated by the use of one of the first four letters of the alphabet after the reference.
ad loc.	at the place.
A.V.	Authorized Version.
C.B.	Cambridge Bible for Schools and Colleges.
Driver LOT	Driver: Introduction to the Literature of the Old Testament —the page references are to the sixth and later editions.
Finegan	Finegan: Light from the Ancient Past .
G. A. Smith I or II	G. A. Smith: The Book of the Twelve Prophets , Vol. I or II.
Harrison	R. W. Harrison: Introduction to the Old Testament.
HDB	Hasting's Dictionary of the Bible —5 vols.
ibid.	in the same place.
I.C.C.	International Critical Commentary.
ISBE	International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia—5 vols; an American work not easily procurable in Britain.
Kenyon	F. Kenyon: The Bible and Archaeology .
Kirkpatrick	A. F. Kirkpatrick: The Doctrine of the Prophets .
op. cit.	in the work previously cited.
LXX	The Septuagint; the oldest Greek translation of the Old Testament.
mg.	Margin.
N.B.D.	New Bible Dictionary
N.E.B.	New English Bible.
R.S.V.	Revised Standard Version.
R.V.	Revised Version.
Young	E. J. Young: An Introduction to the Old Testament

Also standard literary abbreviations and generally recognized ones for the books of the Bible.