

Index to Modern Sermons.

NOTE.—The Compiler will be grateful to friends who send corrections or additions. While the Index is proceeding, references will be given in another column on texts not yet reached, if application is made for them. If requested, other sources of information bearing upon texts or biblical subjects will also be pointed out. Any suggestion, whereby this department can be made of more practical value, will be heartily welcomed.

Says

CHARLES KINGSLEY.—Every duty that is bidden to wait returns with seven fresh duties at its back.

Rev. Marcus Dods, D.D.—With many persons the abandonment of sin is a mere hibernation, not a death.

Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.—You love Christ as much as you are prepared to do or suffer or give up for Him.

It is astonishing how quickly we graduate in the school of love when we begin to put in practice all we know.

Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.—I cannot explain Ezekiel, for I get broken among his wheels. Moreover, I would rather go into the lions' den than expound Daniel.
