마태복음 Matthew 18: 19-20

Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them. (NRSV)

Foreword

What a joy to present this second volume of the journal in print! After the very first issue on Worship, Fall 2008, I was warmly encouraged by colleagues and friends in the ministry and academia. The assessment of this new journal is that it is highly valued not only for its quality research contents, but for its introducing subject matters no one has ever attempted to put together.

In a generic definition “journal” is a record kept on a journey. And I value the process enough to offer a word about this journey of editing each issue of Journal of the Korean American Ministries and Theology. My heartfelt thanks go once again to all the contributing writers and the assistant editor, Hyun Ho Park. And a Columbia Seminary student, John Shillingburg, joined the editorial staff with this issue, offering immeasurable contribution in refining each pages.

Two sermons are introduced in this issue to demonstrate the finest examples from Korean-American preachers focusing on “Korean Preaching.” The readers will find five articles on Korean and Korean-American preaching. We have carefully selected three dissertations on the subject of preaching to introduce, summarize, and evaluate for further study. I invite you to take the journey together as we engage in the preaching ministries of the Korean American churches for the 21st century.
