

Reformation
REVIVAL
JOURNAL

REVIVAL:
A SOLUTION
OR A PROBLEM?

A Quarterly for Church Leadership

VOLUME 11 · NUMBER 3 · SUMMER 2002

A SELECT ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

John H. Armstrong

- *Alexander, Archibald. The Log College. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1968 reprint of 1851 edition. The "log college" was the name contemptuously given to the ministerial college which was the forerunner of Princeton Seminary. Includes biographical sketches of William Tennent and students who were greatly used in ministry during the First Great Awakening.
- Armstrong, John H. Five Great Evangelists: Preachers of Real Revival. Fearn, Ross-shire, Scotland: Christian Focus Publications, 1997. A biographical introduction to five of the most wonderfully used evangelists in the history of Christianity. Each was a preacher who knew the presence and blessing of real revival.
- Armstrong, John H. True Revival: What Happens When God's Spirit Moves? Eugene, Oregon: Harvest House (2001). This revised edition includes a study guide that makes it useful for group discussion and study.
- Bryant, David. The Hope at Hand: National and World Revival for the Twenty-First Century. Grand Rapids: Baker, 1995. Bryant, best known for his leadership of the "Concerts of Prayer" movement, is an engaging proponent of revival prayer.
- Bryant, David. Stand in the Gap: How to Prepare for the Coming World Revival. Ventura, California: Regal Books, 1997. The book's cover proclaims the view that "an awesome move of God is unfolding across our nation and across the planet."
- *Edwards, Brian H. Revival! A People Saturated with God. Darlington, County Durham, England: Evangelical Press,

1990. This is one of the four or five best general titles on the subject. Filled with accounts and stories as well as wise pastoral counsel.
- *Evans, Eifion. Fire in the Thatch: The True Nature of Religious Revival. Bryntirion, Bridgend, Wales: Evangelical Press of Wales, 1996. Evans is one of the most helpful historians of revival today. His special interest is his own country of Wales, "the land of awakenings."
- Fawcett, Arthur. The Cambuslang Revival: The Scottish Evangelical Revival of the Eighteenth Century. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1971. An exciting story well told.
- Goen, C. G., ed. The Works of Jonathan Edwards, Volume 4: "The Great Awakening." New Haven, Connecticut: Yale University Press, 1972. This is the academic and richly annotated edition of the several important works of Edwards on revival. For less money, but without annotations, get the Banner of Truth editions.
- Hardman, Keith J. Seasons of Refreshing: Evangelism and Revivals in America. Grand Rapids: Baker, 1994. Hardman, who wrote the best biography available on Charles G. Finney, is a good historian. He traces the development of mass evangelism in America in this book.
- Hulse, Erroll. Give Him No Rest: A Call to Prayer for Revival. Darlington, County Durham, England: Evangelical Press, 1991. The best in-print book available on how prayer relates to revival and why we ought to "give him no rest" in our pleas for the fulfillment of his commission and the world encompassing promises of gospel success.
- *Murray, Iain H. Revival & Revivalism: The Making and Marring of American Evangelicalism 1750-1858. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1994. If you read only one serious book on revival make it this one! This is the most interesting book available on the subject of how and why American revivalism arose.
- *Murray, Iain H. Pentecost Today? The Biblical Basis for Understanding Revival. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth,

1998. This small book sets forth the best explanation of true revival I know.
- *Orr, J. Edwin. The Event of the Century: The 1857-1858 Awakening. Wheaton, Illinois: International Awakening Press, 1989. A useful study by a respected historian of revival.
- *Packer, J. I. A Quest for Godliness: The Puritan Vision of the Christian Life. Wheaton, Illinois: Crossway, 1990. This collection of essays on the Puritans includes several important chapters on revival that should not be missed. It is a vivid, warm and immensely useful book.
- Prime, Samuel. The Power of Prayer: The New York Revival of 1858. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1991 reprint of 1859 edition. A stimulating first-hand account.
- Smeaton, George. The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1974 reprint of 1889 edition. Smeaton has given us a sound pneumatology that includes the older and wiser view of revival.
- *Sprague, William B. Lectures on Revivals. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1959 reprint of 1832 edition. This is a classic. Lloyd-Jones highly regarded it. Sprague was a prominent historian and church leader during the Second Great Awakening.
- Tracy, Joseph. The Great Awakening: A History of the Revival of Religion in the Time of Edwards and Whitefield. Edinburgh, Scotland: Banner of Truth, 1976 reprint of 1842 edition. Often criticized for coining the phrase "The Great Awakening," this is still a profitable book.
- Tyler, Bennet. New England Revivals. Wheaton, Illinois: Richard Owen Roberts Publishers, 1980. These accounts appeared in the Connecticut Evangelical Magazine from 1797 until 1802. This is some of the most inspiring record of revival I have ever read.

*Recommended